Vanishing Ireland James Fennell, Turtle Bunbury, 2013-09-10 In Vanishing Ireland Recollections of our Changing Times award winning photographer James Fennell and bestselling author Turtle Bunbury once again journey the length and breadth of Ireland to bring us an extraordinary powerful new collection of poignant interviews from ordinary men and women who share with us their memories providing us with an invaluable link to the past Through words and stunningly evocative photographs we meet the people of Ireland who lived through adversity and hardship during the formative decades of independent Ireland yet whose courage kindness and humour remains intact We talk with those who watched friends and family sail for foreign shores and lose ourselves in a world where life was simpler yet somehow happier where storytelling fiddle playing c il s and communal pastimes cemented the deep friendships that became the lifeblood of each community As stories are shared beside the warmth of a fire in farmhouses in Kerry and Clare in the turf sheds of Limerick and Tipperary over cups of tea and glasses of whiskey in the kitchens of Wexford Sligo and Dublin in the cobbled yards of Wicklow and Tipperary in the shadow of the hills of Leitrim and Donegal on the pavements of Dublin City and against the sound of crashing waves on the coast of Galway we meet the people who have lived through times of change as the past comes alive through their words Blacksmiths saddlers harness makers and coal miners mattress makers factory workers bonesetters and cattle drivers all are gathered here as we are afforded a glimpse of the inimitable spirit of the people of this country The world continues to change but gathered within these pages are stories and to be cherished to keep the past alive long into the future
