Vanishing Wilderness Of Africa:

Vanishing Wilderness of Africa Giovanni G. Bellani,2008 CONSERVATION OF THE ENVIRONMENT With its untamed landscapes and unsurpassed bounty of wildlife Africa has long fascinated us Stanley and Livingstone tackled its manifold challenges Karen Blixen made it her home and wrote about it in Out of Africa and Ernest Hemingway's African adventures inspired much of his writing At a time when our earth's fragile balance is in jeopardy Africa is a more precious natural commodity than ever before This stunning volume introduces readers to the rich and varied ecosystems of Africa through specially commissioned photographs that depict its diverse wildlife refuges and nature sanctuaries Spectacular large scale colour photographs bring to life the pink flamingos of Nakuru Lake the hippopotami of the Niger River and the last remaining virgin forest in Odzala in Congo demonstrating the awe inspiring beauty and inestimable significance of eco regions across Africa

In Search of Brightest Africa Jeannette Eileen Jones,2011-11-01 In the decades between the Berlin Conference that partitioned Africa and the opening of the African Hall at the American Museum of Natural History Americans in several fields and from many backgrounds argued that Africa had something to teach them Jeannette Eileen Jones traces the history of the idea of Africa with an eye to recovering the emergence of a belief in Brightest Africa a tradition that runs through American cultural and intellectual history with equal force to its Dark Continent counterpart Jones skillfully weaves disparate strands of turn of the century society and culture to expose a vivid trend of cultural engagement that involved both critique and activism Filmmakers spoke out against the depiction of savage Africa in the mass media while also initiating a countertradition of ethnographic documentaries Early environmentalists celebrated Africa as a pristine continent while lamenting that its unsullied landscape was vanishing New Negro political thinkers also wanted to save Africa but saw its fragility in terms of imperiled human promise Jones illuminates both the optimism about Africa underlying these concerns and the racist and colonial interests these agents often nevertheless served The book contributes to a growing literature on the ongoing role of global exchange in shaping the African American experience as well as debates about the cultural place of Africa in American thought

Our Vanishing Wild Life William Temple Hornaday,1913

William Temple Hornaday was the Director of the New York Zoological Society and the nation's leading advocate of wildlife conservation in this era This unsparing manifesto was written to accompany Hornaday's launching of the Permanent Wildlife Protection Fund it is thus in the words of the historian Stephen Fox both a campaign tract and one of the first books wholly devoted to endangered wild animals John Muir and His Legacy The American Conservation Movement Boston Little Brown and Company 1981 p 149 It is also a landmark of conservation history which had a profound effect on the thought of Aldo Leopold among others The book surveys the history and causes of wildlife destruction in America and elsewhere and sets forth a lengthy program to ensure the protection of remaining wildlife for the future often in militant and moralistic terms

The work also throws light on some of the complexities inherent in the conservation movement at this time for example Hornaday accepts the classification of certain bird and mammalian predators as noxious or vermin and appropriate for destruction pp 77 81 there is no criticism here of the massive campaign for the extermination of wolves and coyotes being sponsored at the time by the Bureau of Biological Survey On a more general level Hornaday's fulminations against Italian immigrants as incorrigible bird killers suggest a connection between nativism and conservationism while his excoriations of market hunters set forth a deeply rooted class bias shared by many leading conservationists Conserva, 1990 Country Life, 1964-04 The Biology and Conservation of South Africa's Vanishing Waters Bryan Robert Davies, Jennifer Ann Day, Jackie King, 1986 Video Source Book, 2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Title index R.R.
