S. Eliot, 2014-03-11 The famed series of Trinity College and Johns Hopkins lectures in which the Nobel Prize winner explored history poetry and philosophy While a student at Harvard in the early years of the twentieth century T S Eliot immersed himself in the verse of Dante Donne and the nineteenth century French poet Jules Laforgue His study of the relation of thought and feeling in these poets led Eliot as a poet and critic living in London to formulate an original theory of the poetry generally termed metaphysical philosophical and intellectual poetry that revels in startlingly unconventional imagery Eliot came to perceive a gradual disintegration of the intellect following three metaphysical moments of European civilization the thirteenth seventeenth and nineteenth centuries The theory is at once a provocative prism through which to view Western intellectual and literary history and an exceptional insight into Eliot s own intellectual development This annotated edition includes the eight Clark Lectures on metaphysical poetry that Eliot delivered at Trinity College in Cambridge in 1926 and their revision and extension for his three Turnbull Lectures at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore in 1933 They reveal in great depth the historical currents of poetry and philosophy that shaped Eliot s own metaphysical moment in the twentieth century     Catalog of Reprints in Series ,1952
