Viewer Discretion Advised

Viewer Discretion Advised Jeffrey McCall, 2007-04-27 Viewer Discretion Advised shows where our media has gone wrong and what we can do about it. Established media critic Jeffrey McCall illustrates the problems with much of contemporary media content: why it is this way and how consumers can actively shape the media. He sets out to increase our understanding of how different media work and how media content affects us daily. Addressing a number of key media issues, McCall explains how the news agenda is shaped and why it fails to effectively inform the citizenry how the First Amendment does and doesn't work and how to manage children's media use. He further highlights the overwhelming influence of big media corporations in dictating cultural standards and the government's role in regulating the media. The final chapter is a helpful guide on how readers can actively challenge media companies. Stop complaining about media content_change it

Television Violence and Public Policy James Hamilton, 2000-08-16 Discusses why and how we should rate the content of television programs for violence Viewer's Discretion Advised Keanakay Scott, 2019-09-15 In a mosaic of raw unfiltered memories forced to the surface by post-traumatic stress, Viewer's Discretion Advised tells the story of a life behind the statistics. The life of an individual human being trapped by social systems and ignored by a society that finds it easier to look the other way. From California to Washington D.C. to Alabama, Keanakay Scott traveled not only across this nation's vast geography but also through its heartless policies and practices that diminish those most in need. Rather than give up as Keana grew from childhood to motherhood, she told herself over and over, "It has to get better." Foster care. Child abuse. Homelessness. Sexual assault. Keanakay experienced it all and throughout it all, she beat the odds and maintained hope.

National Television Violence Study National Television Violence Study, 1998-04-16 This third annual report presents comparative year-to-year data on the nature of violence on television across programme genres and channel types in the United States. It contains an analysis of how the new television rating system was initially implemented and tracks trends over three years in the use of programme advisories and content codes. It also evaluates public service announcements designed to prevent handgun violence among adolescents. Finally, it provides new analyses of high-risk presentations of violence most likely to adversely affect younger audiences. Viewer Discretion Advised Michael Todd, Michael Anderle, 2024-01-16

Media Ratings Joel Federman, 1996 Exploring Gender and Sikh Traditions Doris R. Jakobsh, 2021-09-01 This volume gathers scholars who focus on gender through a variety of disciplines and approaches to Sikh Studies. The intersections of religion and gender are here explored based on an understanding that both are socially constructed. Far from being static as so often presented in world religions textbooks, religious traditions are constantly in flux, responding to historical, cultural, and social contexts. So too is the Sikh tradition in terms of practices, ideologies, rituals, and notions of identity. We here conclude that a Sikh tradition does not exist instead, there are numerous forms thereof. In this volume Sikhism is presented as a collection of Sikh traditions Gender studies in line with women s liberation masculine and feminist studies have long examined and have long deconstructed the patriarchy but also move to identify other subordinate dominant relations between individuals Indeed there are numerous forms of discrimination and power structures that simultaneously create a multiplicity of oppression Intersectionality has become the basis of an increasingly systematized production of contemporary discourses on feminism and gender analysis as is evidenced by the varied contributions in this volume

Viewer Discretion Advised Cindy Roesel,2012-03-01 LIVE FROM MIAMI The sensationalism shown on television can only be topped by the drama that happens behind the camera After being fired from her job in Los Angeles Charlene Charley Thomas moves to sizzling Miami and begins working as news director at a local television station While getting used to her new gig Charley wakes up to the fact that her station manager Jonathan Lefton is the boss from hell who will do anything for a story no matter who gets hurt in the process When nude pictures of noon anchor Miranda Andrews are discovered in the men s room of a Key West bar all hell breaks loose They end up on Lefton s desk and he promotes her over the main anchor sparking off a firestorm Miranda s quickly thrown into the mix and assigned special reports Charley finds herself overseeing an investigation that could shine light on the guilt of a dirty cop Real life begins to mimic the drama of broadcast news when station personalities face life and death all for rating and Emmys VIEWER DISCRETION ADVISED is a modern day Sex and the City meets Broadcast News

The Alphabet Soup of Television Program Ratings Bradley S. Greenberg,Lynn Ann Rampoldi Hnilo,Dana Mastro,2001 This volume contains the responses of thousands of parents and young people to the age based and content based television ratings It reports on the analyses of ratings from several thousand television shows It Identifies the process by which these ratings came into being and compares them with parallel content rating systems in other countries In addition to examining related experimental studies Also included are interviews with a chief rater at a broadcast network and a member of the national ratings oversight body
