"WE ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS"

Chief Guest, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors Principals of Colleges, Deans, Directors, our beloved teachers, parents my colleague graduands and all protocols observed; Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen. Good morning!

I am humbled to address such a wonderful gathering here today – all under the umbrella of cherishing success. History brings us here through a long winding trip that can only be defined by the faithful as a miracle. It is a miracle to those of us who only witnessed others rewarded but never thought about the dawn of our day. Now it is our turn. Our turn to take those powers to read and do all that appertains to the degree.

On behalf of my colleague graduands, I hereby extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all of you who gave us this opportunity. You have proved to us that indeed hard work pays.

To our parents, thank you for understanding that the only inheritance you could dedicate to us was this education. We promised never to let you down and today you can attest to this. We did that and we have successfully completed our task. To God be all the glory.

Once Upon a Time There Was a Three-Year-Old Grandpa David Janzen, 2024-07-18 This eccentric title recalls a collection of tales first told to grandchildren at bedtime Each chapter begins with a fun to read farmer boy story from the 1940s an era before industrial farming when horses cows and chickens were still members of the family These anecdotes each launch a theme that splashes down with further development in later decades of life Diverse topics include imaginative play construction crew humor animal intelligence contemplative prayer and journal writing rural and urban farming communal wisdom and affordable housing along with a few serious pranks and the prophetic mischief that follows This memoir is also a confession in the pattern of Augustine reflecting on God's in breaking initiatives and the writer's emerging sense of calling in lifelong conversation with Jesus Its stories offer a series of curiosity driven on ramps into eight decades of transformative experiences for curious souls to ponder an open eyed faith and a communal way of life for the long haul
