Cinderella and the Sheikh Teresa Morgan, 2012-11-01 She's about to get charmed Libby Fay's safe little life as a waitress at a posh New York boutique hotel implodes when Sheikh Rasyn Al Jabar black eyed and seductive crashes into her world and swears that he loves her. The powerful sheikh will do anything to prevent becoming the ruler of his North African homeland including marrying a woman who is inappropriate to be queen. When he sees the beautiful bubbly waitress he knows that she is the perfect wife to help him avoid the throne all he has to do is make her fall in love with him. All her life Libby has longed for the same loving equal partnership her parents had something she couldn't possibly have with a forceful sheikh who ignores all her objections. But Rasyn seems to be able to charm her into anything including his bed. Soon she finds herself on a plane to Abbas transported into a fairy tale come true. Unfortunately for Libby a Cinderella is the last thing this Prince Charming wants.

EXCERPT The happiness of one woman was a small sacrifice compared to the fate of a country. Sheikh Rasyn ibn Bakr ibn Rahman al Jabar watched her tuck a stray strand of auburn hair behind her ear. Even from across the crowded lobby of Hotel Scheherazade even separated from her by the glass wall that divided the caf from the hotel she drew his awareness to every move of her lush body. The smartly dressed guests bustling around him faded like smoke as he watched her. Rasyn folded the paper he'd been pretending to read across his knee taking care not to smudge the ink onto his Alexander McQueen suit. She was lovely he had to admit even to his critical gaze. Lovely enough to tempt any man into making a fool of himself. No doubt she thought herself too fat. Her breasts would spill over his hands as he ran his thumbs over her nipples. Her lush backside would press against him as he gathered her to his hardened body. A ripple of guilt threatened his resolve. Of course she had done nothing to deserve what he would do to her. However for the good of all Abbas he had to act. His cousin Imaran belonged on the throne despite Uncle Anwar's inclinations. And it had to be soon. His uncle's illness loomed over Abbas like a shroud. The threat of the country devolving into tribal factions fighting over the succession was very real. Securing Imaran's rise to power meant proving his own unworthiness. If that meant seducing an uninvolved woman so be it. The alternative meant people would die. He would ensure her pleasure at least. And when they divorced enough material compensation to ensure she never had to wait tables again. Perhaps even a degree of celebrity. Across the lobby she laughed at something a grey haired man said. Her smile transformed her face from mere beauty to that of an exotic houri. She was perfect for his needs. He'd come to Manhattan intending to find an ordinary woman to seduce. But as soon as he'd seen this one with shining ruby glints in her hair and eyes as green as an oasis he'd forgotten all thoughts of plain women. The second they'd locked eyes a week ago she'd dropped a tray of drinks scattering liquid and glass shards across the floor. That's when he'd chosen her. She was beautiful, tempting and vulnerable to him. No one would wonder why he fell for her. And she resisted him. It had been too long since he'd had a challenge. By hiding behind her veil of politeness she sharpened his appetite for her. He'd never had a problem convincing women to share his bed. If she'd fallen into his arms like others had he wouldn't have minded He would have treated her with the same respect he'd treated them But her refusal to acknowledge his charm showed strength of character he admired Yes He smiled inwardly She was perfect Beautiful And oh so common
