Van De Graaff's Photographic Atlas For The Biology Laboratory:

Van de Graaff's Photographic Atlas for the Biology Laboratory Byron J. Adams, John L. Crawley, 2018 This full color atlas provides students with a balanced visual representation of the diversity of biological organisms. It is designed to accompany any biology textbook or laboratory manual. More than 1 000 full color high quality photographs and photomicrographs depict specimens as they would be seen in the laboratory. Updated photographs, illustrations, cladograms and taxonomy throughout. Addition of foraminiferans, radiolarians and chytrids as well as the female urogenital system in the fetal pig dissections. Numerous dissections of plants as well as invertebrate and vertebrate organisms are presented for students who have the opportunity to conduct similar dissections. Sheep heart, eye and brain dissections are among these. Clear, accurate, completely labeled figures include life cycle illustrations.

photographic atlas provides clear photographs and drawings of tissues and organisms similar to specimens seen in a zoology laboratory. It is designed to accompany any zoology text or laboratory manual and delivers a balanced visual representation of the major groups of zoological organisms. More than 650 full color, carefully labeled photographs, micrographs and illustrations provide a visual reference for students in the lab. Several dissections of invertebrate and vertebrate organisms were photographed for this atlas. Sheep heart and brain dissections are also included. The terms used in this atlas match those appearing in commonly used college zoology texts. Clear, accurate, completely labeled figures are provided, including life cycle illustrations. Numerous dissections of invertebrate and vertebrate organisms are presented for students who have the opportunity to conduct similar dissections. Selected radiographs, CT scans and MR images depict structures from living persons and thus provide an applied dimension to the human biology portion of the atlas.
