Understanding Literacy Development A Global View:

Understanding Literacy Development Anne McKeough, Linda M. Phillips, Vianne Timmons, Judy Lee Lupart, 2006-04-21

The acquisition and maintenance of literacy is of pressing interest and concern to educators and educational policy makers worldwide. What are the common themes, the common questions and the unique circumstances and initiatives that spring from this interest and concern? To address these questions Understanding Literacy Development A Global View brings together leading experts from around the world to explore ways to best provide teaching and learning opportunities tailored to specific educational needs to help all children become better readers. The premise is that current generic one size fits all approaches are inappropriate for many children and can lead to underachievement and failure. The contributors write from a stance that reflects not only their own particular expertise and experience but also sheds light on literacy development across cultures, countries and circumstances. Taken together, chapters in this volume target a wide and comprehensive set of literacy issues and offer an extensive exploration of the complexities of literacy development including issues related to early literacy, school instruction, family literacy, adolescent and adult literacy and teacher development. At a time when education is burdened by increasing economic pressure to do more with less, it is imperative that educators and decision makers at all levels have access to current, broad ranging and in depth information and evidence to inform their choices. This volume, compiling critical research on a wide spectrum of literacy concerns, is an invaluable tool for scholars, teacher educators, professionals and graduate students in the fields of literacy education, early childhood education, educational psychology, educational policy and related areas.

Understanding Literacy Development, 2006 Educational Psychology:

Concepts, Research and Challenges Christine M. Rubie-Davies, 2010-11-29 Educational Psychology: Concepts, Research and Challenges brings together the latest research across many areas of educational psychology, introducing and reporting on the most effective methodologies for studying teachers and learners and providing overviews of current debates within the field.

What Teachers Need to Know about Reading and Writing Difficulties Peter S. Westwood, Peter Westwood, 2008 Literacy skills are fundamental to all areas of learning in the school curriculum but also have a profound impact on an individual's chances of finding satisfying work in the years beyond school. This book draws on the latest research from around the world to explain some of the causes of literacy problems and gives practical advice on methods to support students with their own difficulties. Details of additional resources and online links are provided to assist teachers who wish to pursue some of the issues in greater depth.

Adolescent Second Language Learning and Multilingualism Linda Harklau, 2022-05-19 This is the first book dedicated exclusively to presenting the current state of scholarship on multilingual development and language use among adolescents. Drawing upon the fast growing interdisciplinary field of youth studies, the book provides a detailed examination of the linguistic, cognitive and literacy development of multilingual teenagers in home, school, community and global contexts.
