Sur Lecture French Marcel Proust:

Reading in Proust's A la recherche Adam Watt, 2009-06-18 Adam Watt's critical study of Proust's A la recherche du temps perdu focuses on the role of the acts of reading depicted in the seminal novel. Reading is shown to be a formative and often troubling force in the life of the novel's narrator. A Reader's Guide to Proust's 'In Search of Lost Time' David

Chronology and Time in A la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Gareth H. Steel, 1979 Biography and the Question of Literature in France Ann Jefferson, 2007-01-04 Containing critical readings of some major French authors in the light of the evolving relations between biography and literature, this book offers a history of French literature over a 300-year period and also a discussion of biography's forms, history, and functions. Les Littératures de Langues Européennes Au Tournant Du Siècle, Lectures D'aujourd'hui, 1984

The Writer Writing Francis-Noël Thomas, 2014-07-14 In an age of authorless, contextless, deconstructed texts, Francis Noë l Thomas argues that it is time to re-examine a fundamental but neglected concept of literature: writing is an action whose agent is an individual. Addressing both general readers and scholars, Thomas offers two cases: Bernard Shaw's Saint Joan and Marcel Proust's A la recherche du temps perdu, read against the background of the authors' large, eccentric, and surprisingly similar claims about their texts as acts. He examines what happens when we take these claims seriously enough to find out why the authors made them in the first place and what bearing they have on the texts themselves. Originally published in 1993, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. Novel Configurations Allan H.

Pasco, 1994 During a period when the field of literary studies turned away from texts to theory, Novel Configurations: A Study of French Fiction has become an underground classic. Although it proposes a theory that theory is inductive and solidly based in real works of fiction, while looking again at significant masterpieces that range from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries, from the creations of traditional French writers to that of an Argentine who spent most of his productive life in France, Allan H. Pasco has perceptively indicted new but valid close readings that have revolutionized our view of these works. He suggests that La Chartreuse de Parme is rigorously organized, that Balzac was a narrational minimalist, that Huysmans developed novelistic strategies that would be played out in the Nouveaux Romans, that Proust intended good readers to come away from A la recherche du temps perdu with very different but complementary interpretations, that Robbe-Grillet's La Jalousie turns on a plot that seems strange only because it takes place in the mind of the narrator. From these philologically sophisticated interpretations, Pasco lucidly, elegantly, and wittily points to categories that include all fiction.

Concentrating on patterns and description on the one hand and external and internal organization on the other Novel configurations proposes a new classification that can be easily taught to novices though it will help even professional readers understand the most complex fictional innovations The French Review ,1929 French Prose and Criticism, 1790 to World War II Harold Bloom,1990 A collection of twenty six critical essays on French prose and criticism from 1790 to World War II The Johns Hopkins University Circular ,1929 Includes University catalogues President s report Financial report registers announcement material etc The Books of France Arthur Kingsland Griggs,1923 MLN. ,1975 MLN pioneered the introduction of contemporary continental criticism into American scholarship Critical studies in the modern languages Italian Hispanic German French and recent work in comparative literature are the basis for articles and notes in MLN Four single language issues and one comparative literature issue are published each year Announcement Johns Hopkins University.
