Telugu Journalism S:

Stringers and the Journalistic Field Nimmagadda Bhargav, 2023-02-28 This book is one of the first ethnographic works on small town stringers or informal news workers in Indian journalism. It explores existing practices and cultures in the field of local journalism and the roles and spaces stringers occupy. The book outlines the caste, gender, class, and region-based biases in the production of Indian language journalism with a specific focus on stringers working in Telugu dailies in small towns or mofussil areas of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana states in south India. Further, it captures their daily work and processes of news production and the precarious lives they often lead while working in small towns or mofussils. The author, by using Bourdieu's field theory, introduces the journalistic practices of stringers working on the margins and how they negotiate the complex hierarchies that exist within the journalistic field and outside it. This book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of ethnography, media sociology, journalism, and media studies, labour studies, and Area studies, especially South Asian studies.
