Terry Douglas Coupland,2005 In 1980 Terry Fox set out to run across Canada to raise money for cancer research despite having lost one leg to the disease His goal was to raise 1 from every Canadian to help find a cure and some combination of passion idealism and sheer guts led to the impossible notion that he would do this on one good leg and a prosthesis Beginning in Newfoundland on April 12 1980 he ran 26 miles each day for 143 consecutive days But on September 1 the return of his cancer forced him to stop in Thunder Bay Ontario He died ten months later but by then his dream had been realized over 24 million had been collected in his name Created to help celebrate the 25th anniversary of his journey this biography combines over 80 new photographs from a previously unknown family collection with a very personal episodic narrative The result brings a magic moment in Canadian history and the young man who inspired it freshly alive All royalties from the book will be donated to the Terry Fox Foundation to support cancer research Terry Fox Maxine Trottier,2010-07 Even if I don t finish we need others to continue It s got to keep going Terry Fox Dozens of photographs and simple evocative text combine to tell the story of Terry s life and legacy how he grew up loving sports and competition always determined to finish what he started how he developed cancer and lost his leg how he trained day after day on one strong leg and a prosthetic limb with the idea that he might try to run across Canada how he managed to make it two thirds of the way before cancer returned and how by so doing he inspired millions of people around the world and raised millions of dollars for cancer research The hardcover edition of this important book created in cooperation with the Terry Fox Foundation and Terry s family was the first authorized biography of Terry Fox ever written specifically for children This new paperback edition includes eight new pages of information about Terry and his legacy The Terry Fox Run Jane H Gould,2012-08 On April 12

1980 Terry Fox dipped his artificial leg into the Atlantic Ocean. It was the beginning of his Marathon of Hope, a run across Canada to raise awareness and funds for cancer research. For 143 days, Fox ran an average of 42 kilometres each day. He made it two thirds of the way across Canada before his run was cut short. Fox's cancer had returned. Although Fox hoped to beat cancer again and finish his run, he died on June 28, 1981, at the age of 22. Fox raised 24.2 million for cancer research. More importantly, he inspired cancer survivors around the world in his spirit. Terry Fox Leslie

Scrivener, 1981-01-01 Terry Fox, the one-legged runner from Port Coquitlam, British Columbia, made an indelible impression upon people across Canada and around the world. An outstanding athlete with a stubborn and competitive spirit, he lost his leg to cancer at 19 but said, "nobody is ever going to call me a quitter." On April 12, 1980, Terry Fox set out from St. John's, Newfoundland, to begin the run across Canada that he named the Marathon of Hope. His ambition was to raise a million dollars for cancer research. It wasn't easy. Initial support from communities varied from terrific to nothing at all. His prosthetic leg was painful to run on, and there were always traffic and extreme weather conditions to deal with. But by the time he reached Ontario, a journey of more than 3,000 kilometres, word of his achievement had spread, and thousands cheered him and followed his progress. Terry's spirits soared, and now he hoped to raise 22 million dollars, one dollar for every Canadian. He succeeded in this ambition, but the Marathon of Hope ended near Thunder Bay, Ontario, on September 1, 1980. The cancer had spread to his lungs, and after running 24 miles in one day, on the next, he could run no further. When cancer finally claimed his life in 1981, Canada mourned the loss of a hero, but the Terry Fox Marathon of Hope lives on. The Terry Fox Foundation raised more than 17 million in 1999, and support for the event nationally and around the world is growing. The Value of Facing a Challenge Ann Donegan Johnson, 1983 A biography of a young cancer patient with an artificial leg who determined to run 5,300 miles across Canada in his own Marathon of Hope in order to raise money for cancer research.

Terry Fox Bryan Pezzi, 2006 Discusses the life of Terry Fox and his Marathon of Hope, a run across Canada to raise money for cancer research. Terry and Me Bill Vigars, 2023-08-29 There has never been a Canadian quite like Terry Fox, and there's never been a story quite like The Marathon of Hope. A twenty-two-year-old cancer survivor and amputee, Terry set out from St. John's, Newfoundland, in April 1980, aiming to run across Canada to raise money for cancer research. His first months on the road in Atlantic Canada and Quebec were not only physically taxing; he ran the equivalent of a marathon a day but frustrating, as Canadians were slow to recognize and support his endeavor. That all changed when he met a young man named Bill Vigars, who on behalf of the Canadian Cancer Society led a campaign to ensure that every person in Canada knew the story of this outstanding young man. Vigars was by Fox's side through all the highs and lows until the tragic end of his journey in Thunder Bay. A recurrence of his cancer cut short Terry's dream, and soon his life. Now, for the first time, Vigars tells the inside story of the Marathon of Hope: the logistical nightmares, boardroom battles, and moments of pure magic while giving us a fresh, insightful portrait of one of the greatest Canadians who ever lived. Forever Terry Darrell
