

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary highlights of alternatives you've passed up (college, grad school, etc.). Most of your friends actually pay those prices too. And parents and scholarship dogs did their best jobs by themselves all along. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these new key steps:

Various steps to get something to work, however, are not the same thing as knowing how to do something, and lots of knowledge can be used without doing a thing or doing it well. If you know your way out of your house, you're probably not going to get lost. But how do you know your way out of your house?

The representative will call you to discuss your situation, and to determine if you are eligible for the program. If you are, you will be asked to complete a form and return it to the representative. The representative will then call you again to discuss the details of the program and to answer any questions you may have.

How Can I Appeal an Adverse Decision?
 If you are dissatisfied with a decision made by the Board, you may appeal the decision. You must file an appeal with the Board within 60 days of the date of the decision. The appeal must be in writing and must state the grounds for the appeal. The Board will then schedule a hearing to consider the appeal. If you are unable to attend the hearing, you may request a written decision from the Board. For more information on the appeals process, please contact the Board at (800) 455-7262 or visit our website at www.irs.gov/efile.
