Known for its readability and the depth of topics covered this book also includes an interactive website which contains web tutors further explorations and links to new TechTV video projects TechTV's Starting an Online Business Frank Fiore, 2001 Author Frank Fiore gives the reader a foundation for starting an online business The book is divided into 5 parts It starts with an explanation of e commerce what to sell how to sell it how to plan it and where to find the money to fund it Then it gives the reader the basics of setting up shop on the Web where to host it some e commerce Dos and Don ts and how to take orders and ship them Finally it will cover the essentials of marketing and promoting their new business The book is organized in such a way that the reader can quickly find a topic and get the information they need to set up their own online business Benchmarking in Services Jaideep G. Motwani, Victor E. Sower, 2006 Benchmarking is defined as an improvement process in which a company measures its performance against that of best in class companies determines how those companies achieved their performance levels and uses the information to improve its own performance Bemowski 1992 p 20 Under the best of circumstances benchmarking can be difficult time consuming and costly Service benchmarking is made more difficult than benchmarking in manufacturing because it appears that those things which are important to the customer may differ significantly from one service industry to another Sower et al 2001 Because of the question about the universality of the definition of quality in the service industry and the impact on benchmarking activities the editors obtained as broad a cross section of papers for this special issue as possible The industries represented by the nine papers in this issue cover a broad spectrum of service industries from sports to banking from laboratory services to hospitality and tourism

What determines green purchase behavior? Zhongju Liao, Shufeng Xiao, Siying Long, 2024-05-31 Green purchase behavior refers to consumers purchasing green products that are environmentally friendly using fewer resources and causing lower environmental impact and risk As a growing number of people start to recognize the importance of individual responsibility for environmental protection firms are increasingly motivated to develop green products to fit the needs of this green advocacy Despite an emerging number of consumers claiming their preference towards green brands compared to traditional alternatives researchers have found that there is a huge gap between consumers purchase intention and actual behavior which has gained much attention The psychological process of green purchase behavior may be a complicated process influenced by various factors such as consumer values and norms the pros and cons marketed for green products and various other situational factors Scholars are calling for research that explores the psychological decision making process of green purchase behavior from both theoretical and practical perspectives Due to the high pricing of green products the trade off between the price and function of green products may lower consumers satisfaction Thus there is always a gap between green purchase intention and actual purchase behavior What determines consumers actual green purchase behavior Under what conditions will the consumers pay a premium price for green products What prompts consumers to choose green brands over traditional alternatives Will green consumption be a passing trend or a long term consumption habit What influences the frequency of consumers green purchasing Scholars are welcome to share their opinions and findings about green purchase behavior to help explore this research topic We are extremely interested in the determinants of green purchase behavior and the mechanism of facilitating green consumption considering different perspectives The Times Index ,2000 Indexes the Times and its supplements Customer-effective Web Sites Jodie Dalglish,2000 Build e Commerce sites that help customers achieve their goals better smarter and faster with 17 customer directives every site must follow to succeed In this book Dalglish a leading Gartner Group consultant helps readers gain a competitive advantage by defining their key customer requirements and communicating them effectively to Web developers Byte ,1996-05
