

A top-down view of a workspace on a light-colored wooden desk. A silver laptop is open, showing a black keyboard. To its left is a small potted plant with green grass-like leaves in a white ceramic pot. In front of the laptop is a spiral-bound notebook with a cream-colored cover and a black smartphone resting on it. To the right of the laptop is a silver pen. In the foreground, there is a white cup of black coffee on a matching saucer. To the right of the coffee is a small, empty wooden picture frame. A green semi-transparent banner with a subtle grid pattern is overlaid on the top right of the image, containing the text 'the best side hustles' in white.

Underwood, 2020-01-07 This book will teach you how to start scale and sell a small business from scratch It is intended for entrepreneurs of all levels from first time business owners to seasoned executives looking for a new perspective Once you ve dug up enough pennies from between the couch cushions to start a new business you're going to need a plan. How to Launch Your Side Hustle will walk you through the process of crafting your venture. Author Troy R. Underwood, a trained software developer and entrepreneur, emphasizes using low-cost techniques and creative ideas to finance market and run your business even as it gains momentum. Using his previous company as a model of what to do and sometimes what not to do, Underwood candidly takes you through the steps of building your business, guided by the principle of necessity. Each chapter is dedicated to a particular facet of business: from hiring and training the right people to pricing your product or service, buying the right software and tools, navigating legal issues, and understanding when it's time to sell the business. This book provides you with basic best practices in a quick and simple format so you can get back to work on turning your aspirations into a reality.
