Ammerman (et al., eds), 1998 Studying Congregations Korean Version Nancy Ammerman, Professor of Sociology of Religion School of Theology and Department of Sociology Nancy T Ammerman, Various, 2006-05 Studying Congregations Korean Version The Missional Church in Context Craig Van Gelder, 2007-10-26 The missional church conversation continues to make a vital contribution to thinking about congregations and their contexts addressing the essential question What does it really mean to be church This book offers substantial clarifying insights into that ongoing dialogue Contributors Mark Lau Branson James Tzu Kao Chai Mary Sue Dehmlow Dreier Terri Martinson Elton Scott Frederickson Joon Ho Lee Gary M Simpson Craig Van Gelder Practical Theology in Church and Society Joseph E. Bush, 2016-07-20 The church exists in the world and our ministry is inextricably social in nature Practical theology takes this seriously and asks us to reflect on our practice of ministry in both church and society This book attends to our practice as individuals in ministry to our corporate practice as congregations in ministry and to our practice as Christians within the wider social and natural world Practical Theology in Church and Society brings into sharper focus two perspectives on practical theology One is the view through the wide angle lens of justice oriented action which hopes for liberation This view encompasses a broad vista of social forces for justice and injustice when evaluating local movements and local ministries The other perspective takes the narrower focus of the action reflection model as it is used to zoom in on individual actions and particular practices of ministry such as pastoral care The purpose of the book is to integrate these two perspectives on practical theology It explicates a cyclical method for doing theology that has corollaries within the disciplines of practical theology liberation theology missiology congregation studies and ministerial leadership The volume provides resources for developing more socially and ecologically engaged ministries and it draws implications for ministerial education Congregations in Europe Christophe Monnot, Jörg Stolz, 2018-05-14 This volume describes and maps congregations of Christian confessions and denominations as well as groups with Jewish Buddhist Muslim Hindu and various other spiritual faiths in different European countries Consisting of three parts it presents concrete sociological studies addressing how established and not established old and new congregations of various faiths create a new kind of religious diversity at the country level how religious congregations are challenged and thrive in large cities and how religious congregations change in the 21st century The book enlightens by its descriptive analysis and the theoretical questions it raises concerning the religious transformations happening all over

Europe It addresses issues of religious diversity in the cities of Europe by presenting large studies conducted in cities such as Barcelona in Spain and Aarhus in Denmark By means of large scale censuses taken in areas such as North Rhine Westphalia in Germany and in countries like Switzerland and Italy the book shows how the historically established churches restructure their congregations and activities It clarifies for the new gatherers where and how a new diversity of religious congregations is in the process of being established Finally the book covers two important topical issues pluralisation and secularisation It provides new data on religious diversity painting a new picture of secularisation the impact and structural consequences of the long term decrease of membership in the established churches
