Readings in Advertising, Society, and Consumer Culture Roxanne Hovland, Joyce M. Wolburg, Eric E. Haley, 2014-12-18 This collection of classic and contemporary articles provides context for the study of advertising by exploring the historical economic and ideological factors that spawned the development of a consumer culture. It begins with articles that take an institutional and historical perspective to provide background for approaching the social and ethical concerns that evolve around advertising. Subsequent sections then address the legal and economic consequences of life in a material culture the regulation of advertising in a culture that weighs free speech against the needs of society and the ethics of promoting materialism to consumers. The concluding section includes links to a variety of resources such as trade association codes of ethics standards and guidelines for particular types of advertising and information about self regulatory organizations

Living a Sustainable Lifestyle for Our Children's Children R. Warren Flint, W. L. Houser, 2001 Global population growth is putting our children and grandchildren at risk. Living a Sustainable Lifestyle for Our Children's Children shows how sustainable development is a process of living that cuts across many of the major concerns facing society today and establishes how we can move beyond these present risks. It presents an easy to understand description of sustainability where humans find the means to coexist in a manner that maintains biodiversity wildlands and decent environments while also achieving economic prosperity and equality present and future The book challenges people to transform their awareness of human nature interactions into a deeper commitment to both protecting and wisely using our global natural resources Going beyond science technology and politics this book discusses how we live and why we live the way we do while addressing the basics of life how to know what is in our water air food and land The good news is a shift to sustainable development is occurring Ordinary people living ordinary lives looking at how they live how that in turn affects nature and how fundamental nature is to our existence is the beginning And this book poses tough questions not for another debate but to initiate reader awareness understanding and motion We hope to advance understanding of what people can do differently to alter the surging tide of material inequity and declining resources by offering numerous alternatives for the individual considering their ability to make a difference
