Hearts of Fire The Voice Martyrs,2003-12-01 Eight women from eight very different backgrounds Yet the struggles they each faced rang with eerie similarity These courageous women from across the globe Pakistan India Romania Former Soviet Union China Vietnam Nepal Indonesia shared similar experiences of hardship subjugation and persecution all because of their faith in Christ Yet all of these women have emerged from adversity as leaders and heroines The eight modern day pilgrims featured in Hearts of Fire are the hidden jewels in the church universal They are worthy role models of faith and passion and women of every age will gain new strength and hope for their own times of crisis and trial as they read these inspiring stories Each story concludes with thoughtful self reflection questions for the reader No Compromise (eBook)

Errol Naidoo,2012-10-26 It often happens that people compromise their faith to suit their lifestyle Their black and white sense of right and wrong gets trapped in a gray area In NO COMPROMISE founder and president of Family Policy Institute FPI Errol Naidoo maintains that the major reason for the moral decline in the world today is the lack of conviction and commitment of Christians to be salt and light in society Even though prayer is the foundation of everything a Christian does NO COMPROMISE states that Christians shouldn't just pray and not engage in politics and social issues Naidoo spurs readers on not only to be people of prayer but also people of action They should adjust their lifestyle according to their faith no compromise Redeemed Bodies

Gail Corrington Streete,2009-01-01 Why do religious people choose paths that lead to their deaths as martyrs Why do some who are killed for their faith become known and revered while others do not Gail Streete asks these important and disturbing questions in the context of early Christianity looking at the stories of martyred women such as Thecla Perpetua and Felicitas women whose stories helped shape Christian faith for centuries yet are all but forgotten in the modern world Streete reclaims these stories and relates them to tragic instances of martyrdom in our own world pulling from stories as diverse as the victims of Columbine and female suicide attackers in the Muslim world What do their deaths mean and why do we find their stories so moving Virgin Saints and Martyrs Sabine Baring-Gould,1900
