Women Of Academe Outsiders In The Sacred Grove:

Women of Academe Nadya Aisenberg,Mona Harrington,1988 Drawing on more than sixty interviews this book examines women s struggle to gain authority in the academic profession and to use the at authority to change conventional practices The authors argue that as women rise in academe they are stymied at a certain level by the remaining force of the old norms which in the past barred women from professional life altogether

African Scholars and Intellectuals in North American Academies Sabella Ogbobode Abidde,2020-11-29 This book examines the process and events surrounding the migration of African scholars as well as their lives and lived experiences within and outside of their colleges and universities The chapters chronicle the lived experiences and observations of African scholars in North America and examine a range of issues ideas and phenomena within North American colleges and universities The contributors examine the political ethnic or religious upheavals that informed their migration or banishment contrast the teaching learning research environment in Africa and North America and discuss on and off campus experience with segregation and racial inequality This book will be of interest to students and scholars of the African Diaspora migration and African Studies

Mentoring Away the Glass Ceiling in Academia Brenda Marina,2015-06-10 Mentoring Away the Glass Ceiling in Academia A Cultured Critique is different in that it calls attention to the role mentoring has played on the glass ceiling phenomenon in higher education Narratives by and about the experiences of women of diverse backgrounds in the United States and beyond the borders of this nation shed needed light on the ways in which mentoring influences identity formation and internal coping mechanisms in environments often characterized by marginalization Through these narratives these women serve as quasi mentors and create spaces for other women to survive and thrive within the educational arena This text honors and extends previous work on the experiences of women academics from diverse backgrounds Through this book there is a call for new ways of understanding the vital role that narratives play in speaking truth to the power of mentoring The insights present an expos of the extent to which politics policies and equity agendas for mentoring have supported or failed women
