Women Power And Politics In 21st Century Iran:

Women, Power and Politics in 21st Century Iran Dr Elaheh Rostami-Povey, Ms Tara Povey, 2013-04-28 This book examines the women's movement in Iran and its role in contesting gender relations since the 1979 revolution. Looking at examples from politics, law, employment, environment, media, and religion, and the struggle for democracy, this book demonstrates how material conditions have important social and political consequences for the lives of women in Iran and exposes the need to challenge the dominant theoretical perspectives on gender and Islam. A truly fascinating insider's look at the experiences of Iranian women as academics, political and civil society activists, this book counters the often inaccurate and misleading stereotyping of Iranian women to present a vibrant and diverse picture of these women's lives. A welcome and unique addition to the vibrant and growing literature on women, Islam, development, democracy, and feminisms. Women, Power and Politics in 21st Century Iran Tara Povey, 2016-02-17 This book examines the women's movement in Iran and its role in contesting gender relations since the 1979 revolution. Looking at examples from politics, law, employment, environment, media, and religion, and the struggle for democracy, this book demonstrates how material conditions have important social and political consequences for the lives of women in Iran and exposes the need to challenge the dominant theoretical perspectives on gender and Islam. A truly fascinating insider's look at the experiences of Iranian women as academics, political and civil society activists, this book counters the often inaccurate and misleading stereotyping of Iranian women to present a vibrant and diverse picture of these women's lives. A welcome and unique addition to the vibrant and growing literature on women, Islam, development, democracy, and feminisms. Women and the Islamic Republic Shirin Saeidi, 2022-01-27 Based on extensive interviews and oral histories as well as archival sources, Women and the Islamic Republic challenges the dominant masculine theorizations of state making in post-revolutionary Iran. Shirin Saeidi demonstrates that despite the Islamic Republic's non-democratic structures, multiple forms of citizenship have developed in post-revolutionary Iran. This finding destabilizes the binary formulation of democratization and authoritarianism which has not only dominated investigations of Iran but also regime categorizations in political science more broadly. As non-elite Iranian women negotiate or engage with the state's gendered citizenry regime, the Islamic Republic is forced to remake oftentimes haphazardly its citizenry agenda. The book demonstrates how women remake their rights, responsibilities, and statuses during everyday life to condition the state making process in Iran, showing women's everyday resistance to the state making process. Iranians in London Mahnaz Sekechi, 2018-06-26 This book explores the psychosocial significance of loss and exclusion in the lives of many Iranian immigrants living in London since the Iranian revolution of 1979. It addresses the experiences of middle class Iranians who left Iran in both voluntary contexts (immigration) and in enforced contexts (exile). The author elucidates the experiences of ordinary middle class Iranians who chose to leave Iran given the socio-political and cultural context of the changes wrought by the Islamic Republic in Iranian society. Mahnaz Sekechi argues that losses of country liberty and security in Iran combined with varying degrees of social exclusion and downward mobility in London have led to an encapsulated sadness for many despite their capacity for creative living The book also demonstrates the value of psychosocial analysis in understanding dislocations in general and their effects on wellbeing
