Knickerbocker,2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read. It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers. It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they're reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs. In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film. It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with. The book's discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictive terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books. It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading. Marching as to War Elizabeth F. Desnoyers-Colas, 2014-05-22 Since the American Revolution African American women have served in every U.S. military conflict. Despite this dedicated service to their country very little empirical research has been published regarding African American servicewomen including those who have served in the Gulf Wars. Seen through the eyes of eleven African American servicewomen this book explores issues such as health care child care sexism sexual harassment racism religion military promotions career advancement and serving in combat zones. Their stories illuminate the types of professional sociological and interpersonal experiences black servicewomen have encountered during their time in the Gulf Wars.
