Women Making Art History Subjectivity Aesthetics:

Women Making Art Marsha Meskimmon, 2003 Women have been making art for centuries yet their work has been seen as secondary or has gone unrecognized altogether Women Making Art asks why this is so and what it would take for us to realize the extent of women's extraordinary contribution to the arts Marsha Meskimmon mobilizes contemporary feminist thinking to reconsider how and why women have made art She examines work by a wide range of women artists from different cultures and historical periods including Rebecca Horn Rachel Whiteread Shirin Neshat and Maya Lin emphasizing the diversity of women's art and the importance of differences between women

Women Writing Art History in the Nineteenth Century Hilary Fraser, 2014-09-04

This book sets out to correct received accounts of the emergence of art history as a masculine field It investigates the importance of female writers from Anna Jameson Elizabeth Eastlake and George Eliot to Alice Meynell Vernon Lee and Michael Field in developing a discourse of art notable for its complexity and cultural power its increasing professionalism and reach and its integration with other discourses of modernity Proposing a more flexible and inclusive model of what constitutes art historical writing including fiction poetry and travel literature this book offers a radically revisionist account of the genealogy of a discipline and a profession It shows how women experienced forms of professional exclusion that whilst detrimental to their careers could be aesthetically formative how working from the margins of established institutional structures gave women the freedom to be audaciously experimental in their writing about art in ways that resonate with modern readers

Contemporary Art and the Cosmopolitan Imagination Marsha Meskimmon, 2010-09-13

Contemporary Art and the Cosmopolitan Imagination offers a challenging new direction in the current literature on cosmopolitanism globalisation and art

Scenography and Art History Astrid Von Rosen, Viveka Kjellmer, 2021-05-20 Scenography and Art History reimagines scenography as a critical concept for art history and is the first book to demonstrate the importance and usefulness of this concept for art historians and scholars in related fields It provides a vital evaluation of the contemporary importance of scenography as a critical tool for art historians and scholars from related branches of study addressing phenomena such as witchy designs Early Modern festival books live rock performances digital fashion photography and outdoor dance interventions With its nuanced and detailed case studies this book is an innovative contribution to ongoing debates within art history and visual studies concerning multisensory events It extends the existing literature by demonstrating the importance of a reimagined scenography concept for comprehending historical and contemporary art histories and visual cultures more broadly The book contends that scenography is no longer restricted to the traditional space of the theatre but has become an important concept for approaching art historical and contemporary objects and events It explores scenography not solely as a critical approach and theoretical concept but also as an important practice linked with unrecognized labour and broader political social and gendered issues in a great variety of contexts such as festive culture sacred settings fashion film or performing arts Designed as a key resource for students teachers and researchers in art history visual studies and related subjects the book through its cross disciplinary frame does consider implicitly and explicitly the roles of both scenography and art in society Contemporary Art and Unforgetting in Colonial Landscapes Kate McMillan,2019-07-22 This book explores the work of artists based in the global south whose practices and methods interrogate and explore the residue of Empire In doing so it highlights the way that contemporary art can assist in the un forgetting of colonial violence and oppression that has been systemically minimized The research draws from various fields including memory studies postcolonial and decolonial strategies of resistance activism theories of the global south the intersection between colonialism and the Anthropocene as well as practice led research methodologies in the visual arts Told through the author s own perspective as an artist and examining the work of Julie Gough Yuki Kihara Megan Cope Yhonnie Scarce Lisa Reihana and Karla Dickens the book develops a number of unique theories for configuring the relationship between art and a troubled past Women Framing Hair Heather Hanna,2015-05-13 This book explores the complex and enigmatic motif of hair in the work of five contemporary women artists Chrystl Rijkeboer Alice Maher Annegret Soltau Kathy Prendergast and Ellen Gallagher from the late 1970s to the present It investigates why hair is such a productive and resonant site of meaning how it is suggestive of and responds to serial strategies and why it appears to be of particular significance to women who are artists It explores the implications of hair as an embodied material its role as a haptic metaphor of the life cycle and what might be seen as a darker more liminal side of hair as a site of excess and body waste and its ability to represent trauma and wounding It also discusses some of the divergent histories of hair as a rich marker of identity in cultural discourses of beauty myth and femininity and as a symbol of status and power Informed by a range of theoretical approaches this book draws on Julia Kristeva s theorizations of the abject H l ne Cixous s notion of critique feminine and a Deleuzian consideration of difference Transcultural Encounters Amongst Women Patricia O'Byrne,Gabrielle Carty,Niamh Thornton,2010 Traditionally women have found recourse in artistic means to interrogate change and upheaval This volume explores women from Spain Portugal and Latin America who have described this experience in their literature and films Sexed Universals in Contemporary Art Penny Florence,2004 Published as part of the Aesthetics Today series and in conjunction with the School of Visual Arts The Feminism and Visual Culture Reader Amelia Jones,2010 Feminism is one of the most important perspectives from which visual culture has been theorised and historicised over the past 30 years This book brings together a wide array of writings including classic texts and polemical new pieces New Books on Women and Feminism ,2004 Art Journal ,1960 Assessment in Arts Education Philip Taylor,2006 With the current emphases on standards and evidence based learning it s time to revisit the question of whether standards liberate or stifle excellence in arts education Assessment in Arts Education examines the pressing issues that educators everywhere and at all levels face as they make determinations about progress and achievement in the arts Assessment in Arts Education critiques the application of standards in arts education and the extent to which benchmarks and attainment levels are practically and educationally sensible It opens up an interdisciplinary discussion on arts education assessment and provides helpful advice for thinking about assessment and evaluation Leaders in drama music dance and the visual arts detail how they ve navigated the issues around assessment and tackled tough questions such as How do assessment models shape teaching in the arts How much guidance should standards provide for arts educators Who benefits from national and local assessment standards in the arts What contributions have standards made to the teaching of the creative arts Meet standards and assessment head on Read Assessment in Arts Education and find evidence not only of how your students think and learn but of how the entire community of arts educators has considered and acted on the demands of these educational times Artbibliographies

Modern ,2004 Gendered Bodies Shuqin Cui,2016 Gendered Bodies introduces readers to women s visual art in contemporary China by examining how the visual process of gendering reshapes understandings of historiography sexuality pain and space When artists take the body as the subject of female experience and the medium of aesthetic experiment they reveal a wealth of noncanonical approaches to art The insertion of women s narratives into Chinese art history rewrites a historiography that has denied legitimacy to the woman artist The gendering of sexuality reveals that the female body incites pleasure in women themselves reversing the dynamic from woman as desired object to woman as desiring subject The gendering of pain demonstrates that for those haunted by the sociopolitical past the body can articulate traumatic memories and psychological torment The gendering of space transforms the female body into an emblem of landscape devastation remaps ruin aesthetics and extends the politics of gender identity into cyberspace and virtual reality The work presents a critical review of women s art in contemporary China in relation to art traditions classical and contemporary Inscribing the female body into art generates not only visual experimentation but also interaction between local art cultural production and global perception While artists may seek inspiration and exhibition space abroad they often reject the Western label feminist artist An extensive analysis of artworks and artists both well and little known provides readers with discursively persuasive and visually provocative evidence Gendered Bodies follows an interdisciplinary approach that general readers as well as scholars will find inspired and inspiring N. Desiring Women Katherine Bode,2008 Elles@centrepompidou Musée national d'art moderne/Centre de création industrielle (France),Centre Georges Pompidou,2009 This exhibition brings together a selection of over 500 works by more than 200 women artists from the beginning of the 20th century up to the present day Contested Sites Paul A. Pickering,Alex Tyrrell,2004 The second half of the nineteenth century witnessed a new phenomenon in public monuments and civic ornamentation Whereas in former times public statuary had customarily been reserved for warriors and statesmen kings and rulers of men a new trend was emerging for towns to commemorate their own citizens As the subjects immortalised in stone and bronze broadened beyond the traditional ruling classes to include radicals and reformers it necessitated a corresponding widening of the language and understanding of public statuary Contested Sites explores the role of these commemorations in radical public life in Britain Despite recent advances in the understanding of the importance of symbols in public discourse political monuments have received little attention from historians This is to be regretted for commemorations are statements of public identity and memory that have their politics they are embedded in complex class gender and power relations that determine what is remembered or forgotten Examining monuments plaques and tombstones commemorating a variety of popular movements and reforming individuals the contributions in Contested Sites reveal the relations that went into the making of public memory in modern Britain and its radical tradition Choice ,2002

Transnational Feminisms and Art's Transhemispheric Histories Marsha Meskimmon,2022-12-29 In this second book of her trailblazing trilogy Marsha Meskimmon proposes that decolonial ecocritical feminist art s histories can unravel the anthropocentric legacies of Eurocentric universalism to create transformative conversations between and across many and more than human worlds Engaging with the ecologies and genealogies worlds and stories that constitute the plural knowledge projects of transnational feminisms and art s transhemispheric histories the book is written through two critical figurations transcanons and trans scalar ecologies Materializing art s histories as radical practices of disciplinary disobedience the volume demonstrates how planetary feminisms can foster interdependent flourishing as they story pluriversal worlds and world pluriversal stories with art This is essential reading for students and researchers in art history theory and practice visual culture studies feminism and gender studies environmental humanities and cultural geography The Trilogy Transnational Feminisms Transversal Politics and Art Entanglements and Intersections Transnational Feminisms and Art s Transhemispheric Histories Ecologies and Genealogies Transnational Feminisms and Posthuman Aesthetics Resonance and Riffing
