Women's Writing in Italy, 1400-1650 Virginia Cox, 2008-06-16 Winner 2009 Best Book Award Society for the Study of Early Modern Women Winner 2008 PROSE Award for Best Book in Language Literature and Linguistics Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division of the Association of American Publishers This is the first comprehensive study of the remarkably rich tradition of women's writing that flourished in Italy between the fifteenth and early seventeenth centuries Virginia Cox documents this tradition and both explains its character and scope and offers a new hypothesis on the reasons for its emergence and decline Cox combines fresh scholarship with a revisionist argument that overturns existing historical paradigms for the chronology of early modern Italian women's writing and questions the historiographical commonplace that the tradition was brought to an end by the Counter Reformation Using a comparative analysis of women's activities as artists musicians composers and actresses Cox locates women's writing in its broader contexts and considers how gender reflects and reinvents conventional narratives of literary change

The Prodigious Muse Virginia Cox, 2011-09-01 Winner 2012 Book Award Society for the Study of Early Modern Women Honorable Mention Literature 2012 PROSE Awards Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division of the Association of American Publishers In her award winning critically acclaimed Women's Writing in Italy 1400 1650 Virginia Cox chronicles the history of women writers in early modern Italy who they were what they wrote where they fit in society and how their status changed during this period In this book Cox examines more closely one particular moment in this history in many ways the most remarkable for the richness and range of women's literary output A widespread critical notion sees Italian women's writing as a phenomenon specific to the peculiar literary environment of the mid sixteenth century and most scholars assume that a reactionary movement such as the Counter Reformation was unlikely to spur its development Cox argues otherwise showing that women's writing flourished in the period following 1560 reaching beyond the customary feminine genres of lyric poetry and letters to experiment with pastoral drama chivalric romance tragedy and epic There were few widely practiced genres in this eclectic phase of Italian literature to which women did not turn their hand Organized by genre and including translations of all excerpts from primary texts this comprehensive and engaging volume provides students and scholars with an invaluable resource as interest in these exceptional writers grows In addition to familiar secular works by authors such as Isabella Andreini Moderata Fonte and Lucrezia Marinella Cox also discusses important writings that have largely escaped critical interest including Fonte's and Marinella's vivid religious narratives an unfinished Amazonian epic by Maddalena Salvetti and the startlingly fresh autobiographical lyrics of Francesca Turina Bufalini Juxtaposing religious and secular writings by women and tracing their relationship to the male authored literature of the period often surprisingly affirmative in its attitudes toward women Cox reveals a new and provocative vision of the Italian Counter Reformation as a period far less uniformly repressive of women than is commonly assumed

Selected Philosophical and Scientific Writings marquise Gabrielle Emilie Le Tonnelier de Breteuil Du Châtelet, 2009-09 Emilie Du Châtelet was an accomplished scientific and philosophical writer whose contribution to French intellectual life in the first half of the 18th century has long been obscured by her association with Voltaire This volume of her writings will help re-establish a reputation that has long been overshadowed

Meditations on the Incarnation, Passion, and Death of Jesus Christ Catharina Regina von Greiffenberg, 2009-06 Read by Protestants and Catholics alike Catharina Regina von Greiffenberg 1633-94 was the foremost German woman poet and writer in the seventeenth century German speaking world Privileged by her social station and education she published a large body of religious writings under her own name to a reception unequalled by any other German woman during her lifetime But once the popularity of devotional writings as a genre waned Catharina s works went largely unread until scholars devoted renewed attention to them in the twentieth century For this volume Lynne Tatlock translates for the first time into English three of the thirty-six meditations restoring Catharina to her rightful place in print These meditations foreground women in the life of Jesus Christ including accounts of women at the Incarnation and the Tomb and in Scripture in general Tatlock s selections give the modern reader a sense of the structure and nature of Catharina s devotional writings highlighting the alternative they offer to the male-centered view of early modern literary and cultural production during her day and redefining the role of women in Christian history
