Women In World Religions Mcgill Studies In The History Of Religions:

Women in World Religions Arvind Sharma, 2024-12-02 This book delves into the future of the relationship between religion and the status of women. With contributions from distinguished scholars, it examines current trends in the following religions: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Sikhism, Confucianism, and Daoism. It envisions the implications of these developments for the future position of women. The method employed in this book is characterized by what is known as personalist epistemology. The contributing authors blend their experiences as women within the diverse traditions along with more comprehensive accounts of the role of women in these religions. By doing so, they combine the finest aspects of subjective and objective approaches to studying women in world religions. The contributors examine contemporary trends within their respective religious traditions by combining the finest aspects of subjective and objective approaches to studying women in world religions. It serves as a testament to the enduring interest in women's roles in religion and the dynamic nature of the field. The book intends to appeal to many readers from the general public to academics. It offers valuable insights into the position of women in world religions, making it relevant to both the average person and those engaged in scholarly pursuits.

Today's Woman in World Religions Arvind Sharma, 1994-01-01 This book examines how the women's movement is affecting traditional religions and civilizations throughout the world. It reviews cases of global impact in Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and Australian aboriginal religion. This volume completes the trilogy devoted to women in world religions edited by Arvind Sharma. The second book in the series is entitled Religion and Women. The present work surveys the position of women in the religious traditions covered in the first volume of the trilogy, Women in World Religions, placing these traditions in contemporary context.

Religion and Women Arvind Sharma, 1994-01-01 This book discusses the position of women in the Native American, African, Shinto, Jaina, Zoroastrian, Sikh, and Baha'i faiths for the first time in a single volume and evolves a conceptual framework within which their positions could be comprehensively considered. The contributing scholars provide an enlarged database for a more thorough discussion of the questions pertaining to women and religion in general and simultaneously advance the theoretical frontiers in women's studies. Religion and Women belongs to a trilogy about women and world religions edited by Arvind Sharma, the first and third volumes being respectively Women in World Religions and Today's Woman in World Religions.

Feminism and World Religions Arvind Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 1999-01-01 Addressing religion and feminism on a global scale, this unprecedented book contains a nuanced and fine-tuned treatment of seven of the world's religions from a feminist perspective by leading women scholars. The fact that these authors share a dual but undivided commitment both to themselves as women and to their traditions as adherents imparts to their voices a prophetic quality and, if Mahatma Gandhi is to be believed, even scriptural value.

Religion and Women Arvind Sharma, Birks Professor of Comparative Religion
Arvind Sharma, 1994-01-01 This book discusses the position of women in the Native American, African, Shinto, Jaina

Zoroastrian Sikh and Baha i faiths for the first time in a single volume and evolves a conceptual framework within which their positions could be comprehensively considered The contributing scholars provide an enlarged database for a more thorough discussion of the questions pertaining to women and religion in general and simultaneously advance the theoretical frontiers in women s studies Religion and Women belongs to a trilogy about women and world religions edited by Arvind Sharma the first and third volumes being respectively Women in World Religions and Today s Woman in World Religions Women's Voices in World Religions Hille Haker, Susan A. Ross, Marie-Theres Wacker, 2006 Asceticism Vincent L. Wimbush, Richard Valantasis, 2002-05-23 From meditation and fasting to celibacy and anchoritism the ascetic impulse has been an enduring and complex phenomenon throughout history Offering a sweeping view of this elusive and controversial aspect of religious life and culture Asceticism looks at the ascetic impulse from a unique vantage point Cross cultural cross religious and multidisciplinary in nature these essays provide a broad historical and comparative perspective on asceticism a subject rarely studied outside the context of individual religious traditions The work represents the input of more than forty preeminent scholars in a wide range of fields and disciplines and analyzes asceticism from antiquity to the present in European Near Eastern African Asian and North American settings Asceticism is organized around four major themes that cut across religious traditions origins and meanings of asceticism which explores the motivations and impulses behind ascetic behaviors hermeneutics of asceticism which looks at texts and rhetorics and their presuppositions aesthetics of asceticism which documents responses evoked by ascetic impulses and practices as well as the arts of ascetic practices themselves and politics of asceticism which analyzes the power dynamics of asceticism especially as regards gender cultural and ethnic differences Critical responses to the major papers ensure the focus upon the themes and unify the discussion Two general addresses on broad philosophical and historical interpretive issues suggest the importance of the subject of asceticism for wide ranging but serious cultural critical discussions An Appendix Ascetica Miscellanea includes six short papers on provocative topics not related to the four major themes and a panel discussion on the practices and meanings of asceticism in contemporary religious life and culture A selected bibliography and an index are also included The only comprehensive reference work on asceticism with a multicultural multireligious and multidisciplinary perspective Asceticism offers a model not only for an understanding of a most important dimension of religious life but also for future interdisciplinary study in general

Methodology in Religious Studies Arvind Sharma, 2012-02-01 Methodology in Religious Studies assesses the impact of women s studies on the various methods employed in studying religion Since its inception in the 1860s the study of religion as an academic discipline has evolved over time ranging from the classically historical to the boldly hermeneutical The women s studies movement has since the 1980s become part and parcel of the intellectual landscape of our times and the study of religion has become increasingly influenced by it What are the implications of this new development for the methodology of religious studies Leading practitioners of psychological theological sociological anthropological phenomenological historical and hermeneutic approaches examine the mutually enriching interface between religious studies and women s studies as they explore the broader issue of the interaction between method and the nature of the subject itself
