Mindful Morning Routine

Winged Morning Glories

My Mourning Routine

Living with chronic illness and neurodegenerative disease, experiencing a mourning routine feels as unique as my needs. Here's how I plan to adjust my life so that I can continue my loved one's life without my help.

I often use gratitude journaling to practice how I hope to focus on the positives and not dwell on the things that I fear. I spend time with my spiritual support and the great presence in both writing and breathing.

The routine also includes taking a day of coffee with strong tea, a good book, a movie, and a lot of relaxation. I also have a good night's sleep, a good morning, and a good day. I also have a good night's sleep, a good morning, and a good day. I also have a good night's sleep, a good morning, and a good day.

These small, consistent steps make a difference in making and keeping my life.
