The Poetry of Paul Muldoon Jefferson Holdridge,2008 The Poetry of Paul Muldoon introduces the student and general reader to the critical discussion surrounding Muldoon s oeuvre as well as to his major themes It examines the poet s meditations on culture and nature human and animal speculations on the act of perception figures fragmented by the Troubles and philosophical considerations of colonisation It then discusses what rank among the most beautiful and intricate elegies of our time For Muldoon art s complicity in suffering is a political self indicting question which his best poems endeavour to answer If sometimes this Pulitzer Prize winner insists that art has a positive role to play at other times he fears that it merely feeds off the carnage This critical book shows how for Muldoon art should not merely repeat the devastation of the world although he is afraid that it does and engages in bitter moral despair that places his work among the very best any contemporary poet has written The Poetry of Paul Muldoon unearths difficult questions of form with a metaphysical significance that is suitable to our times BOOK JACKET Poets of Modern Ireland Neil Corcoran,1999 Corcoran discusses the work of Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon and Michael Longley among others He constructs a critical account of the poets work putting it into context to the contemporary debate surrounding their work
