The Chatterbox ,1930

The Playbook Charlie M. Adkins,2021-12 The genesis of this book are conversations with family and friends using sarcasm to talk about the American political landscape which led to the initial version of The Playbook I began writing the book in 2018 with the intent of pointing out the direction I saw Liberals Socialist Democrats going and making specific predictions about the tactics and techniques I thought they would use in the future The problem was I wasn't writing with any specific timeline for when I wanted to finish the book This slow approach created a problem because the Liberals were moving much faster than I anticipated For example in the first draft I wrote that in the future Liberals would be able to actively discriminate against whites specifically for their race but it wouldn't be considered racist because only whites can be racist Well before I finished the book that specific tactic became commonplace The book began to feel outdated before it was even finished so I just quit writing I shelved it and walked away The American author Phillip Roth once said You can't write good satirical fiction in America because reality will quickly outdo anything you invent This was what I felt like However a few friends knew I was writing this book and persuaded me to take it back off the shelf and finish what I had begun After giving The Playbook a minor facelift I hope readers enjoy the sarcasm and humor and that is some small way the book helps expose the destructive nature of the actions being taken in our country right now
