Stuff John C. Ryan, Alan Thein Durning, 1997 This volume takes you to the places and people you touch every day BOOK JACKET "Stuff-- the Secret Lives of Everyday Things" Oklahoma. Department of Environmental Quality, 2002* Majority of text quoted in part from Stuff the secret lives of everyday things by John C Ryan published in 1997 Stuff Zane Parker, 2000 Teaching for EcoJustice Rita J. Turner, 2015-05-22 Teaching for EcoJustice is a unique resource for exploring the social roots of environmental problems in humanities based educational settings and a curriculum guidebook for putting EcoJustice Education into practice It provides model curriculum materials that apply the principles of EcoJustice Education giving pre and in service teachers the ability to review examples of specific secondary and post secondary classroom assignments lessons discussion prompts and strategies that encourage students to think critically about how modern problems of sustainability and environmental destruction have developed their root causes and how they can be addressed The author describes instructional methods she uses when teaching each lesson and shares insights from evaluations of the materials in her classroom and by other teachers Interspersed between lessons is commentary about the rationale behind the materials and observations about their effect on students the Otesha Book: From Junk to Funk!, 2005 The Otesha Book from junk to funk is a key resource for anyone interested in creating positive change educators parents students and concerned citizens alike This creative and informative read represents the collaboration of a dozen authors and provides a behind the scenes look at how our daily actions change the world Packed with cool graphics engaging issue backgrounders and inspiring stories From Junk to Funk covers six main topics water clothing media food transportation and fair trade Each topic is explored in depth encouraging readers towards empowerment and action Readings in Advertising, Society, and Consumer Culture Roxanne Hovland, Joyce M. Wolburg, Eric E. Haley, 2014-12-18 This collection of classic and contemporary articles provides context for the study of advertising by exploring the historical economic and ideological factors that spawned the development of a consumer culture It begins with articles that take an institutional and historical perspective to provide background for approaching the social and ethical concerns that evolve around advertising Subsequent sections then address the legal and economic consequences of life in a material culture the regulation of advertising in a culture that weighs free speech against the needs of society and the ethics of promoting materialism to consumers The concluding section includes links to a variety of resources such as trade association codes of ethics standards and guidelines for particular types of advertising and information about self regulatory organizations Living a Sustainable Lifestyle for Our Children's Children R. Warren Flint, W. L. Houser, 2001 Global population growth is putting our children and grandchildren at risk Living a Sustainable Lifestyle for Our Children's Children shows how sustainable development is a process of living that cuts across many of the major concerns facing society today and establishes how we can move beyond these present risks It presents an easy to understand description of sustainability where humans find the means to coexist in a manner that maintains biodiversity wildlands and decent environments while also achieving economic prosperity and equality present and future The book challenges people to transform their awareness of human nature interactions into a deeper commitment to both protecting and wisely using our global natural resources Going beyond science technology and politics this book discusses how we live and why we live the way we do while addressing the basics of life how to know what is in our water air food and land The good news is a shift to sustainable development is occurring Ordinary people living ordinary lives looking at how they live how that in turn affects nature and how fundamental nature is to our existence is the beginning And this book poses tough questions not for another debate but to initiate reader awareness understanding and motion We hope to advance understanding of what people can do differently to alter the surging tide of material inequity and declining resources by offering numerous alternatives for the individual considering their ability to make a difference
