The Plague Dogs:

The Plague Dogs Richard Adams, 2010-11-03 This modern day classic is an unforgettable tale of fantasy and adventure a powerful exploration of the limits of human cruelty and kindness A gripping compelling tale of emotional force and high suspense The Wall Street Journal Rowf a shaggy black mongrel and Snitter a black and white fox terrier are among dozens of animals being cruelly held in a testing facility in North West England When one of the handlers fails to close Rowf's cage properly the two dogs make a daring escape into the English countryside where they befriend a red fox who helps them survive in the wild But as rumors circulate that the dogs may have been the test subjects for biological weapons and could be carrying a terrible plague they soon find themselves targets of a great dog hunt Local farmers politicians scientists and even the military join in the search to track them down The plague dogs Richard Adams, 1974 The Plague Dogs, 2005

The Plague Dogs Richard Adams, 2002 Two dogs a fox terrier and a black Labrador escape from a research laboratory in the Lake District They team up with a fox and live wild When it is discovered that the dogs may be carriers of bubonic plague they are hunted down remorselessly The Plague Dogs Richard Adams, Robert Adams, 1983-12-12 The Plague Dogs. With Illustrations and Diagrams by A. Wainwright Richard Adams, 1977 Animal Narratology Joella Jacobs, 2020-12-15 Animal Narratology interrogates what it means to narrate to speak speak for on behalf of and to voice or represent life beyond the human which is in itself as different as insects bears and dogs are from each other and yet more as individual as a single mouse horse or puma The varied contributions to this interdisciplinary Special Issue highlight assumptions about the human perception of attitude toward and responsibility for the animals that are read and written about thus demonstrating that just as the animal does not exist neither does the human In their zoopoetic focus the analyses are aware that animal narratology ultimately always contains an approximation of an animal perspective in human terms and terminology yet they make clear that what matters is how the animal is approximated and that there is an effort to approach and encounter the non human in the first place Many of the analyses come to the conclusion that literary animals give readers the opportunity to expand their own points of view both on themselves and others by adopting another's perspective to the degree that such an endeavor is possible Ultimately the contributions call for a recognition of the many spaces moments and modes in which human lives are entangled with those of animals one of which is located within the creative bounds of storytelling Gothic Animals Ruth Heholt, Melissa Edmundson, 2019-12-10 This book begins with the assumption that the presence of non human creatures causes an always already uncanny rift in human assumptions about reality Exploring the dark side of animal nature and the otherness of animals as viewed by humans and employing cutting edge theory on non human animals eco criticism literary and cultural theory this book takes the Gothic genre into new territory After the dissemination of Darwin's theories of evolution nineteenth century fiction quickly picked up on the idea of the animal within Here the fear explored was of an unruly defiant degenerate and entirely amoral animality lying mostly dormant within all of us However non humans and humans have other sorts of encounters too and even before Darwin humans have often had an uneasy relationship with animals which as Donna Haraway puts it have a way of looking back at us In this book the focus is not on the animal within but rather on the animal with out other and entirely incomprehensible

Screening the Nonhuman Amber E. George,J.L. Schatz,2016-04-27 Screening the Nonhuman draws connections between how animals represented on screen translate into reality In doing so the book demonstrates that consuming media is not a neutral act but rather a political one The images humans consume have real world consequences for how animals are treated as actors as pets and in nature The contributors propose that altering the representations of animals can change the way humans relate to non humans Our hope is for humans to generate more ethical relationships with non humans ultimately mediating reality both in terms of fiction and non fiction To achieve this end film television advertisements and social media are analyzed through an intersectional lens But the book doesn t stop here Each author creates counter representational strategies that promise to unweave the assumptions that have led to the mistreatment of humans and non humans alike
