Unlike other books on this subject, this book will focus on the How an individual can move from local labor to global talent in the new world defined as Enterprise 2.0. Enterprise 2.0 commonly refers to organizations that operate under an open communication model where interaction and communication is encouraged from the top down. Enterprises are accomplishing this feat by not only addressing the technology requirements of Web 2.0 but the social and organizational changes required to sustain a competitive advantage. In the 2.0 environment these physical trademarks have been replaced by more meta physical ones such as logo slogans and reputation. Still, like every organization we must learn to build both the physical and meta physical trademarks in order to compete in the next 25 years.
