

Pelé 1940 - 2022

Who is Pelé?

- Pelé was considered to be one of the most significant sportspeople of the 20th century.
- According to the Guinness Book of World Records, he scored 1279 goals in 1262 games.

Pelé, the Brazilian footballer thought to be the best of all time, has died. He scored over 1200 goals in his career and was part of the Brazil team that won the World Cup in 1958, 1962 and 1970.

Edson Arantes do Nascimento (known as Pelé) was born on 23rd October 1941 in Três Corações, Brazil.

At the age of 15, he played for Santos FC for the first time.

A year after playing his first match for Santos, he made his debut for the Brazil men's football team. At 17 years old, Pelé had a sensational tournament at the 1958 World Cup in Sweden. In the semi-final, he scored a hat-trick against France. He then scored two goals against the host country in the final to help Brazil win the tournament.

Brazil continued to follow Pelé. The Brazil team then retained the trophy at the following tournament. What's more, the Brazilian government thought he was so important to their country that they even named him a 'national treasure'. The government did this to stop Pelé leaving Brazil to play for teams in Europe.

In 1970, he once again helped his national team to lift another World Cup trophy. Pelé finished his career in 1977, playing for the US football team the New York Cosmos.

Pelé remembered Pelé's achievements long after he stopped playing football professionally. In 2019, the International Olympic Committee named him Athlete of the Century. In the same year, FIFA named Pelé the joint winner of the Footballer of the Century award with Diego Maradona.

When thinking about his career, Pelé said "I was born for soccer, just as football was born for me."

Meaning

- scored The team spent by a person in their job.
- hat-trick To score three goals in the same football match.
- retained A group of people that remained.
- footballer

Most 'Weird and Wonderful' RSPCA Rescues of 2022

The RSPCA has revealed some of its most 'weird and wonderful' animal rescues from 2022.

Early in January, officers were called to help a cat who had been left on its way. They found it at the top of a cliff 500 feet from the beach.

The RSPCA's Amy Pellegrini rescued the cat to the beach, she said: "I was quite inspired to find this cat so far up - he must have just taken a wrong turn and then followed the coastal path".

and the use of some 500 ropes to carefully lower him out of the cliff," said the RSPCA's Amy Collins.

Officers were also called out last year to rescue some wild boar from traps.

In February, they visited a primary school in Herefordshire to collect a ring frog that was found in the school river because it had travelled over 1,000 miles from the Ivory Coast.

Then in September, they had to pay to a family home in Staffordshire where a lion dog was found in another basket of

What is the RSPCA?

- The RSPCA stands for Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. It was established in 1824.
- On their website they say they are 'the world's oldest and largest animal welfare charity, with the primary focus of rescuing, rehoming and rehoming or rehoming animals across England and Wales.'

A growing theme in 2022 was found with their heads stuck in things. Officers had to help a fox with its head stuck in a watering can and a fox with its head stuck in a large can of dog food. They also came to the rescue of more than one fox that had got its head stuck in the hole of a flower pot.

RSPCA inspector Chris Brown said it was "how dangerous this can be".

In July, there was a Mollusc in the West. A cat got quite a surprise when a 10-foot centipede came slithering through the front door.

It was passed on to staff and placed in a box because it had made a 4,000-mile journey from the Dominican Republic.

James Murphy works for the RSPCA, he said: "It's not known to be able to find a head in animals in domestic and wild and we have several
