The Man I Love Suanne Laqueur, 2014-06-16

A watershed moment exists in every man's life. Fish, the moment when you stop being your mother's son and start being your lover's man. When you transition from protected to protector. Erik Fish. Fiskare is only a college junior when a gunman walks into the campus theater intent on stopping the show. From the lighting booth, Fish sees his girlfriend, Marguerite Daisy Bianco, get caught in the line of fire. Everyone runs away from the stage but Fish. In a watershed moment, runs toward it. Spanning fifteen years, The Man I Love explores how a single act of violence reverberates through a circle of friends. At the center are Fish and Daisy, two soul mates who always brought out the best in each other. Both are hailed as heroes after the shooting, yet the tragedy starts to bring out the worst in them, tearing the circle apart. Soon Fish is running again, not toward Daisy this time but as far away as possible. But can you really leave the one you were born to love? And is leaving always the end of loving? You never got over her, Fish. You just left. You may think that's closure, but it isn't. You may think a woman like Daisy comes along twice in a lifetime, but she doesn't. Fearlessly touching on today's social and mental health issues, The Man I Love follows Erik Fiskare's journey back to the truth of himself and a woman he can't forget. With its gripping story and an unforgettable cast of characters, this epic novel of love and forgiveness lingers long after the last page is turned. A new kind of romance, well-crafted and intelligently written, Suanne Laqueur deftly explores what it means to be vulnerable, resilient and human. A compelling, heartfelt, intense read, The Man I Love raises important and tough social topics that are relevant and timely. An intelligent, perfectly pitched modern romance, NOT your typical boy meets girl but a story of first love and how people handle extreme situations. The Man I Love looks love, sex, depression and PTSD in the face and calls them by name. An astounding journey of forgiveness and recovery, Laqueur combines the dynamics of a circle of friends with a school shooting. The result is The Man I Love, a gripping, angst-filled psychological romance that explores second chances at first love. Book clubs will find plenty to discuss in this coming-of-age emotional journey of forgiveness and recovery. The characters are flawlessly crafted and deserving of love after tragedy. You'll be thinking about them long after you've finished. From university to adulthood through love and loss devotion and betrayal estrangement and forgiveness the Fish Tales series will bring you on an emotional journey of love and truth Give Me Your Answer True Suanne Laqueur,2015-06-20 What I feel has no name Suanne Laqueur s award winning debut novel The Man I Love thrilled readers with its memorable characters and depth of emotion Erik Fiskare s journey of love recovery and forgiveness captivated hearts but also left questions unanswered Now Daisy Bianco has a chance to tell her story It s been three years since a single lapse of judgment cost Daisy the love of her life Erik was a conduit to her soul but now he s chosen a path of total disconnection refusing to speak to her or acknowledge her betrayal Alone and shattered Daisy attempts to take responsibility for her actions while building her career as a professional dancer in New York City But Erik s unforgiving estrangement proves too much for her strength Plagued by flashbacks to the Lancaster shootings she falls into a dangerous spiral of self harm cutting into her own skin as a means to atone Only the timely appearance of an old friend John Opie Quillis saves her from self destruction and gives her a chance to love again Laqueur skillfully weaves flashbacks to the college years with Daisy s present life Supported by John s patient affection she works to separate her evolution as an adult from the unresolved guilt and grief of her youth As her professional accomplishments lift her out of depression Daisy learns to hold onto her accountability without letting it become her identity Years pass and she builds a beautiful life filled with dance and friends Lovers come and eventually go leaving her on her own with the old thought Come back to me In this parallel narrative Laqueur peels open the beloved characters from The Man I Love to reveal new and complex layers of vulnerability The scars from the shooting are deep and pervasive within this circle of friends Like Daisy they are trying to evolve without being fully resolved But when questions from the past go unheeded you alone must find and give your answers true Sharing God's Blessing Robin
