Competing with Disruptive Business Models in Traditional Industries. Conceptualisation of a Strategic Framework Nils Berkemeyer, 2016-05-06 Master s Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1.0 Cass Business School language English abstract An increasing number of journalistic articles and academic literature deal with the struggle of established companies to fend off the attacks by industry newcomers such as Airbnb Spotify Netflix Google and many others These companies enter traditional industries with innovative business models and compete in a manner which makes it challenging for incumbent firms to understand their novel competition and respond effectively This study introduces a typology of three stages of industry disruption that classify the newcomer's developmental stage and describe the incumbent's competitive position in terms of competition intensity and remaining time to respond It is demonstrated how incumbents may conduct their strategic reasoning along these stages to arrive at a strategic goal and evaluate possible counter measures

Essentials of Marketing Analytics, 1e Joseph F. Hair (Jr.), Dana E. Harrison, Haya Ajjan, 2021 We developed this new book with enthusiasm and great optimism Marketing analytics is an exciting field to study and there are numerous emerging opportunities for students at the undergraduate level and particularly at the master's level We live in a global highly competitive rapidly changing world that is increasingly influenced by digital data expanded analytical capabilities information technology social media artificial intelligence and many other recent developments We believe this book will become the premier source for new and essential knowledge in data analytics particularly for situations related to marketing decision making that can benefit from marketing analytics which is likely 80 percent of all challenges faced by organizations
