Paterno,2021-06-15 Director of the Chapman journalism program and mother of four recent college grads Susan F Paterno leads you through the admissions process to help you and your family make the best decision possible How is it possible that Harvard is more affordable for most American families than their local state university Or that up to half of eligible students receive no financial aid Or that public universities are rejecting homegrown middle and working class applicants and instead enrolling wealthy out of state students College admission has escalated into a high stakes game of emotional and financial survival How is the deck stacked against you And what can you do about it Susan F Paterno a veteran academic and journalist answers these questions and more in Game On Paterno helped her four very different kids navigate the application process to a wide range of colleges paying for their four year educations on a finite budget She incisively decodes the college admission industry the consultants the tutors the rankers the branding companies hawking advantage and arms you with the knowledge you need to make the system work for you You ll learn how to narrow your focus analyze who gets in and why and look for the right financial fit before considering anything else including geography reputation and especially ranking Among the tools and insights in Game On Why forty years of failed free market policies have led to skyrocketing tuition and historic levels of student debt Why applying to college has become a bewildering maze and how to find your way to a successful result Why college costs are more terrifying than you think How to read beyond the rack rate to negotiate the best financial package with the least debt Why merit is a myth but merit aid is essential The difference between family debt and student debt and how to split it A playbook for the Hunger Games of higher education Game On explains the anxiety uncertainty and chaos in college admission explodes the myth of meritocracy exposes the academy s connection to America s widening gap between rich and poor and provides strategies to beat and reform a broken system

Failing Universities Howard Karger,David Stoesz,2024-10-31 Colleges and universities were once places where students came to learn experts intellectuals and others came to teach and where knowledge was created Today America s higher education system is severely compromised by commodification and corporatization which have transformed higher education into a marketplace This book examines the effects of these transformations providing a comprehensive critique of the problems the sector faces It outlines how higher education s commodification has impacted areas including affordability access waste hierachal administrative structures faculty governance the college sports industrial complex and status and social mobility based on institutional prestige The authors explore alternative policy solutions and examples of systems of higher education that are both effective and cost effective They propose a forward looking agenda for structural reform that is less expensive and more educationally sound than the current model Emphasising social cohesion sustainability a respect for diversity and an understanding of democracy and democratic principles Failing Universities offers alternative solutions for US higher education to return to its basic mission
