work Postdevelopmental Approaches to Digital Arts in Childhood Marissa McClure Sweeny, Mona Sakr, 2025-01-23
This book deconstructs traditional developmentalist logic around children's engagement with digital media where the focus is on what the digital does to children's bodies and brains. Rather than seeing children as vulnerable and passive recipients, the authors position children as co-creators and digital artists embracing the richness of children's digital play. The chapters cover a wide range of topics including indigenous digital art, digital drawing, learning to code, social media, and artificial intelligence. The authors use a diverse range of theoretical perspectives including posthumanism, feminist new materialism, social semiotics, socialcultural, and multimodal approaches to childhood to generate new ways of seeing the relationship between children and the digital. The book includes chapters from academics and practitioners based in Australia, Canada, Sweden, the UK, and the USA, and a companion website showcasing innovative and interactive material including visual essays and soundscapes. The Michigan Journal ,2012 Farmer's Weekly ,1922 Advertiser's Weekly ,1926

No one gets something for nothing. We all should know better. Teenagers at Wisconsin's Nottawa High School are drawn deeper into a social networking site that promises to grant their every need, regardless of the consequences. Soon the site turns sinister with simple pranks escalating to malicious crimes. The body count rises. In this chilling YA thriller, the author of the best-selling Testing trilogy examines not only the dark side of social media but the dark side of human nature. Informationweek ,1996 Time Briton Hadden, Henry R.
