The Innovation Complex Sharon Zukin, 2020-02-03 You hear a lot

these days about innovation and entrepreneurship and about how good jobs in tech will save our cities Yet these common tropes hide a stunning reality local lives and fortunes are tied to global capital You see this clearly in metropolises such as San Francisco and New York that have emerged as superstar cities In these cities startups bloom jobs of the future multiply and a meritocracy trained in digital technology backed by investors who control deep pools of capital forms a new class the tech financial elite In The Innovation Complex the eminent urbanist Sharon Zukin shows the way these forces shape the new urban economy through a rich and illuminating account of the rise of the tech sector in New York City Drawing from original interviews with venture capitalists tech evangelists and economic development officials she shows how the ecosystem forms and reshapes the city from the ground up Zukin explores the people and plans that have literally rooted digital technology in the city That in turn has shaped a workforce molded a mindset and generated an archipelago of tech spaces which in combination have produced a now hegemonic innovation culture and geography She begins with the subculture of hackathons and meetups introduces startup founders and venture capitalists and explores the transformation of the Brooklyn waterfront from industrial wasteland to innovation coastline She shows how far beyond Silicon Valley cities like New York are shaped by an influential triple helix of business government and university leaders an alliance that joins C Wright Mills's power elite real estate developers and ambitious avatars of academic capitalism As a result cities around the world are caught between the demands of the tech economy and communities desires for growth a massive and often insurmountable challenge for those who hope to reap the rewards of innovation's success

Social TV Cory Barker, 2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 SCMS Media Industries Scholarly Interest Group Outstanding Book Award sponsored by the Center for Entertainment Media Industries On March 15 2011 Donald Trump changed television forever The Comedy Central Roast of Trump was the first major live broadcast to place a hashtag in the corner of the screen to encourage real time reactions on Twitter generating more than 25 000 tweets and making the broadcast the most watched Roast in Comedy Central history

The trumpoast initiative personified the media and tech industries utopian vision for a multi screen and communal live TV experience In Social TV Multi Screen Content and Ephemeral Culture author Cory Barker reveals how the US television industry promised but failed to deliver a social media revolution in the 2010s to combat the imminent threat of on demand streaming video Barker examines the rise and fall of Social TV across press coverage corporate documents and an array of digital ephemera He demonstrates that despite the talk of disruption the movement merely aimed to exploit social media to reinforce the value of live TV in the modern attention economy Case studies from broadcast networks to tech start ups uncover a persistent focus on community that aimed to monetize consumer behavior in a transitional industry period To trace these unfulfilled promises and flopped ideas Barker draws upon a unique mix of personal Social TV experiences and curated archives of material that were intentionally marginalized amid pivots to the next big thing Yet in placing this now forgotten material in recent historical context Social TV shows how the era altered how the industry pursues audiences Multi screen campaigns have shifted away from a focus on live TV and toward all day content streams The legacy of Social TV then is the further embedding of media and promotional material onto every screen and into every moment of life
