Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books Alison Baverstock,Richard Bradford,Madelena Gonzalez,2020-01-16 Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books is a comprehensive resource that builds bridges between the traditional focus and methodologies of literary studies and the actualities of modern and contemporary literature including the realities of professional writing the conventions and practicalities of the publishing world and its connections between literary publishing and other media Focusing on the relationship between modern literature and the publishing industry the volume enables students and academics to extend the text based framework of modules on contemporary writing into detailed expositions of the culture and industry which bring these texts into existence it brings economic considerations into line alongside creative issues and examines how employing marketing strategies are utilized to promote and sell books Sections cover The standard university course specifications of contemporary writing offering an extensive picture of the social economic and cultural contexts of these literary genres The impact and status of non literary writing and how this compares with certain literary genres as an index to contemporary culture and a reflection of the state of the publishing industry The practicalities and conventions of the publishing industry Contextual aspects of literary culture and the book industry visiting the broader spheres of publishing promotion bookselling and literary culture Carefully linked chapters allow readers to tie key elements of the publishing industry to the particular demands and features of contemporary literary genres and writing offering a detailed guide to the ways in which the three core areas of culture economics and pragmatics intersect in the world of publishing Further to being a valuable resource for those studying English or Creative Writing the volume is a key text for degrees in which Publishing is a component and is relevant to those aspects of Media Studies that look at interactions between the media and literature publishing

Implementing Triple Bottom Line Sustainability into Global Supply Chains Lydia Bals, Wendy Tate, 2017-09-08
The global sustainability challenge is urgent tremendous and increasing From an ecological perspective the current worldwide resource footprint requires approximately 1.5 planets to sustain existing life and with current usage would require two planets by 2030 The social impact of ever growing resource use disproportionately affects the world's poor the 3 billion people living on less than 2.50 a day as they struggle to acquire what is needed to survive The serious ecological and social challenges we face in trying to establish global sustainable supply chains must not be underestimated yet so far research has largely ignored the social dimension in favour of the environmental and economic So how can we develop business strategies that move away from a primary economic focus and give equal weight to people planet and profit How can we create sustainable supply chains that take a true triple bottom line approach Implementing Triple Bottom Line Sustainability into Global Supply Chains features innovative research highlighting new cases approaches and concepts in how to successfully implement sustainability covering economic ecological and social dimensions into global supply chains The four parts cover the rationale for sustainable global supply chains key enablers case studies showing clear implementation steps and directions for future research and development This book is a must read for any academic researching in sustainable supply chain management procurement or business strategy and for business leaders seeking cases that will inform a critical step forward for CSR programmes

Library Programs and Services for New Adults Kyla Hunt, 2017-10-06 Addressing the needs of new adults those ages 18-29 in the library is an important challenge This book explains the needs and wants of new adults in the public library setting and identifies their preferences in physical space programming and technology According to the Pew Research Center's 2015 Libraries at the Crossroads Report 52 percent of people between the ages of 16 and 29 visited a bookmobile or library within the past year Yet many public libraries programming and outreach skip over this demographic jumping from teen services to older adults Library Programs and Services for New Adults provides a road map for including new adults into the family of the small public library and offers a variety of resources and programming ideas that librarians can use immediately Author Kyla Hunt a library technology and trends specialist explains why the needs of new adults are typically overlooked at public libraries defines who new adults are and explains why serving their needs is key to the success of today s public libraries Readers will come away with an in depth understanding of the mindset and needs of patrons who are 18 to 29 years old and be able to cater to their preferences as they pertain to physical space programming technology and marketing

A Guide to the Choice of Books Arthur Herbert Dyke Acland,2016-08-15 Excerpt from A Guide to the Choice of Books For Students and General Readers There are three classes of readers some enjoy without judgment others judge without enjoyment and some there are who judge while they enjoy and enjoy while they judge Goethe About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A Guide to the Choice of Books for Students & General Readers Arthur H. D. Acland,2017-07-05 Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non fiction literature that has stood the test of time The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text photographs or missing pages It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing s books will be delighted with their purchase Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection repairing or if necessary rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing's titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original and to the maximum degree possible gives them the experience of owning the original work We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality but also providing value to every one of our readers Generally Trieste books are purchased singly on demand however they may also be purchased in bulk Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates A Guide to the Choice of Books for Students & General Readers Arthur Herbert Dyke
