The Mobilization Of Political Islam In Turkey:

The Mobilization of Political Islam in Turkey Banu Eligür, 2010-04-12 The Mobilization of Political Islam in Turkey explains why political Islam which has been part of Turkish politics since the 1970s but on the rise only since the 1990s has now achieved governing power Drawing on social movement theory the book focuses on the dominant form of Islamist activism in Turkey by analyzing the increasing electoral strength of four successive Islamist political parties the Welfare Party its successor the Virtue Party and the successors of the Virtue Party the Felicity Party and the Justice and Development Party This book which is based on extensive primary and secondary sources as well as in depth interviews provides the most comprehensive analysis currently available of the Islamist political mobilization in Turkey

The Mobilization of Political Islam in Turkey (1980-2002) Banu Eligür, 2006

The Rise of Political Islam in Turkey Kayhan Delibas, 2014-12-19 Turkey officially a secular state voted in an Islamist party in 2002 2007 and 2011 How far does this reflect the trend which has seen the rise of political Islam across the Middle East Does this indicate a growing tendency in the direction of Islamisation amongst the Turkish population If not what are the underlying reasons behind the electoral triumphs of the Islamist Justice and Development Party the AKP Kayhan Delibas seeks to answer these questions through an in depth examination of the appeal of this political party exploring its ideology the routes and motives which produce party activists and local party organisations Concluding that the AKP s success has been built on its criticism of growing inequalities widespread corruption unemployment poverty and lack of basic services Delibas draws a nuanced portrait of modern Turkish society and the relationship between religion and politics Delibas offers an explanation based on research carried out amongst grassroots activists for the rise of Islamic fundamentalism in Turkey Islamic movements are often described as anti modernist thought to be supported by fundamentalist groups living in a bygone age isolated from the rest of the modern world In recent years particularly since the events of 9 11 such movements have also been seen as a threat to the Western way of life But Delibas argues that these movements and particularly those in Turkey did not arise out of religious fervour or hatred of Western civilisation as is often claimed Rather they were founded and have thrived as a response to socio economic and political conditions that have been aggravated by neoliberal economic policies rapid urbanisation and the globalization of culture By exploring the structural conditions in which an Islamic movement emerged and become popular in a seemingly secular state The Rise of Political Islam in Turkey offers vital analysis for all those researching modern Turkey and the growth of Islamist politics throughout the Middle East and North Africa

Islamist Mobilization in Turkey Jenny White, 2011-06-01 Winner of the William A Douglass Prize in Europeanist Anthropology The emergence of an Islamist movement and the startling buoyancy of Islamic political parties in Turkey a model of secular modernization a cosmopolitan frontier and NATO ally has puzzled Western observers As the appeal of the Islamist Welfare Party spread through Turkish society including the middle class in the 1990s the party won numerous local elections and became one of the largest parties represented in parliament even holding the prime ministership in 1996 and 1997 Welfare was formally banned and closed in 1998 and its successor Virtue was banned in 2001 for allegedly posing a threat to the state but the Islamist movement continues to grow in popularity Jenny White has produced an ethnography of contemporary Istanbul that charts the success of Islamist mobilization through the eyes of ordinary people Drawing on neighborhood interviews gathered over twenty years of fieldwork she focuses intently on the genesis and continuing appeal of Islamic politics in the fabric of Turkish society and among mobilizing and mobilized elites women and educated populations White shows how everyday concerns and interpersonal relations rather than Islamic dogma helped Welfare gain access to community networks building on continuing face to face relationships by way of interactions with constituents through trusted neighbors She argues that Islamic political networks are based on cultural understandings of relationships duties and trust She also illustrates how Islamic activists have sustained cohesion despite contradictory agendas and beliefs and how civic organizations through local relationships have ensured the autonomy of these networks from the national political organizations in whose service they appear to act To illuminate the local culture of Istanbul White has interviewed residents activists party officials and municipal administrators and participated in their activities She draws on rich experiences and research made possible by years of firsthand observation in the streets and homes of Umraniye a large neighborhood that grew in tandem with Turkey's modernization in the late 20th century This book will appeal to anthropologists sociologists historians and analysts of Islamic and Middle Eastern politics

Political Islam in Turkey and Women's Organizations Yeşim Arat, 1999 The Rise of Political Islam in Turkey Angel Rabasa, F. Stephen Larabee, 2008 As a Muslim majority country that is also a secular democratic state a member of NATO a candidate for membership in the European Union a long standing U S ally and the host of Incirlik Air Base a key hub for logistical support missions in Afghanistan and Iraq Turkey is pivotal to U S and Western security interests in a critical area of the world It also provides an example of the coexistence of Islam with secular democracy globalization and modernity However having a ruling party with Islamic roots the Justice and Development Party AKP within a framework of strict secularism has generated controversy over the boundaries between secularity and religion in the public sphere leading to parliamentary elections along with a new mandate for the party in July 2007 This monograph describes the politico religious landscape in Turkey and the relationship between the state and religion and it evaluates how the balance between secular and religious forces and between the Kemalist elites and new emerging social groups has changed over the past decade The study also assesses the new challenges and opportunities for U S policy in the changed Turkish political environment and identifies specific actions the United States may take to advance the U S interest in a stable democratic and friendly Turkey and more broadly in the worldwide dissemination of liberal and pluralistic interpretations of Islam

Nationalisms and Politics in Turkey Marlies Casier, Joost Jongerden, 2010-09-13 This book examines some of the most pressing issues facing the Turkish political establishment in particular the issues of political Islam and Kurdish and Turkish nationalisms The authors explore the rationales of the main political actors in Turkey in order to increase our understanding of the ongoing debates over the secularist character of the Turkish Republic and over Turkey's longstanding Kurdish issue Original contributions from respected scholars in the field of Turkish and Kurdish studies provide us with many insights into the social and political fabric of Turkey exploring Turkey's secularist establishment the ruling AKP government the Kurdistan Workers Party and the Institutions of the European Union While the focus of concern in this book is with the social agents of contemporary politics in Turkey the convictions they have and the strategies they employ historical dimensions are also integrated in their analyses In its approach the book makes an important contribution to a widening investigation into the making of politics in the contemporary world Incorporating the importance of the growing transnational connections between Turkey and Europe this book is particularly relevant in the light of the ongoing negotiations over Turkey's membership to the European Union and will be of interest to scholars interested in Turkish studies Kurdish studies and Middle Eastern Politics

Globalization and Marketized Islam in Turkey Joshua D. Hendrick, 2009 Transnational Law & Contemporary Problems, 2011 Political Islam in Turkey, 2007 Institutional Origins of Islamist Political Mobilization Quinn Meacham, 2017-02-07

This book explores why Islam becomes politicized in some countries and not in others comparing diverse cases including Turkey Algeria and Senegal 2007, İslam ve Demokrasi: Türkiye'de İslamın Politiklaşması Islamism Among the Urban Poor of Turkey Cihan Ziya

Tuğal, 2003 Islamic Political Identity in Turkey M. Hakan Yavuz, 2003-08-28 In November of 2002 the Justice and Development Party swept to victory in the Turkish parliamentary elections Because of the party's Islamic roots its electoral triumph has sparked a host of questions both in Turkey and in the West Does the party harbor a secret Islamist agenda Will the new government seek to overturn nearly a century of secularization stemming from Kemal Atatürk's early twentieth century reforms Most fundamentally is Islam compatible with democracy In this penetrating work M Hakan Yavuz seeks to answer these questions and to provide a comprehensive analysis of Islamic political identity in Turkey He begins in the early twentieth century when Kemal Atatürk led Turkey through a process of rapid secularization and crushed Islamic opposition to his authoritarian rule Yavuz argues that since Atatürk's death in 1938 however Turkey has been gradually moving away from his militant secularism and experiencing a quiet Muslim reformation Islamic political identity is not homogeneous says Yavuz but can be modern and progressive as well as conservative and potentially authoritarian While the West has traditionally seen Kemalism as an engine for reform against reactionary political Islam in fact the Kemalist establishment has traditionally used the Islamic threat as an excuse to avoid democratization and thus hold on to power Yavuz offers an account of the soft coup of 1997 in which the Kemalist military bureaucratic establishment overthrew the democratically elected coalition government which was led by the pro Islamic Refah party He argues that the soft coup plunged Turkey into a renewed legitimacy crisis which can only be resolved by the liberalization of the political system The book ends with a discussion of the most recent election and its implications for Turkey and the Muslim world Yavuz argues that Islamic social movements can be important agents for promoting a democratic and pluralistic society and that the Turkish example holds long term promise for the rest of the Muslim world Based on extensive fieldwork and interviews this work offers a sophisticated new understanding of the role of political Islam in one of the world s most strategically important countries Islamic Political Identity in Turkey M. Hakan Yavuz,1998 Folds of Authoritarianism Firat Kurt,2018 Beginning with 2002 the Justice and Development Party AKP has mobilized millions of Turkish citizens from the most impoverished districts of Istanbul Based on two years of ethnographic engagement in two districts of Istanbul Esenler and Kucukcekmece the party s stronghold this dissertation focuses on the conjunction of neoliberal economic transformations mass mobilization and political Islam By paying close attention to personal histories daily capacities emerging hopes and inter generational grievances of the party members and sympathizers it investigates how material and financial transformations facilitate and even promote a popular knowledge that authoritarian politics embodied by the AKP in Turkey are the only solution for the predicaments of late capitalism The project aims to problematize some key presumptions of contemporary social scientific analyses namely individualization depoliticization and economic rationality and investigates the emergence of alternative practices in their steads self negation authoritarian mobilization and fundamentalist disposition Spiritual and Political Revolutions in Islam Félix Vályi,1925 Islam in Modern Turkey Richard Tapper,1994 A systematic account of the life works and accomplishments of al Kirmani an important Ismaili Muslim scholar and writer in the fields of philosophy and science who lived during the first half of the 11th century AD Political Islam Barry M. Rubin,2007 Organized into sections this book discusses the origins and world view of political Islam and its relationship with issues of terrorism and democracy This three volume collection also includes case studies that examine the ideas strategy tactics leadership and opposition to the movement both in the Middle East and in other parts of the world Politics and Development of the Jamaat-e-Islami, Bangladesh Bhuian Md. Monoar Kabir,2006
