Women Of Lebanon Interviews With Champions For Peace:

Women of Lebanon Nelda LaTeef,1997 Forty two Lebanese women from arts and literature education government law social work the media business and medicine discuss the effects of war on their careers and humanitarian efforts their personal lives families and careers    Gender and Diversity in the Middle East and North Africa Zahia Smail Salhi,2013-09-13 The images of women in chadors or burqas as contrasted with images of belly dancers which circulate today as representations of Muslim Middle Eastern women do not fluctuate from the images propagated by Orientalist paintings and colonial photographs which also offer contrasting representations of the veiled thus secluded and the naked or semi naked thus eroticised Muslim Oriental woman As well as challenging the prevailing stereotypes of the Middle Eastern and North African women the book aims to highlight the element of diversity which characterises the lives of these women and the regions to which they belong The sense that most of the Middle Eastern and North African countries are Muslim does confer a common identity a distinction from others that may serve to bridge wide social cultural and economic differences among them However it is also important to stress that significant elements other than Islam contribute to the making of MENA societies and women s cultural identities This book was published as a special issue of the British Journal of Middle Eastern Studies    Reproducing Sectarianism Paul W. T. Kingston,2013-06-20 The Arab Spring in Tunisia Egypt Libya and elsewhere has highlighted the growing importance of the politics of civil society in the contemporary Middle East In Reproducing Sectarianism Paul W T Kingston examines rights oriented advocacy networks within Lebanon s postwar civil society focusing on movements and political campaigns based on gender relations the environment and disability Set within Lebanon s postwar sectarian democracy whose factionalizing dynamics have long penetrated the country s civil society Kingston s fascinating study provides an in depth analysis of the successes and challenges that ensued in promoting rights oriented social policies Drawing on extensive field research including interviews and a wealth of primary documents Kingston has produced a groundbreaking work that will be of interest to Middle East experts and nonexperts alike

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide Irving Epstein,2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world s children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world s children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN s codification of children s rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century The Middle East and North Africa 2004 ,2003-10-30 Now in its 50th edition this title continues to provide the most up to date geo political and economic information for this important world area Covers the Middle East and North Africa from Algeria to Yemen Offers quick access to a wide range of data Accurately and impartially records the latest political and economic developments Provides comprehensive data on all major organizations in the region General Survey Introductory essays covering topics relating to the region as a whole including Arab Israeli Relations 1967 2003 The Jerusalem Issue Documents on Palestine The Removal of Saddam Hussain and the Deconstruction of Iraq Natural Gas in the Middle East and North Africa Oil in the Middle East and North Africa and Islamic Banking and Finance Country Surveys Individual chapters on each country containing articles on geography recent history and economy an economic and demographic survey using all the latest available statistics on population agriculture industry finance trade transport tourism and education directory sections with names addresses and contact numbers covering the constitution government legislature judiciary political organizations diplomatic representation religious groups the media finance trade and industry including petroleum and tourism Regional Information Includes all major international organizations active in the region their aims activities publications and principal personnel Research Institutes specializing in the region Bibliographies of books and periodicals covering the Middle East and North Africa

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women's Issues Worldwide Lynn Walter,2003 Women are working internationally to build a world based on gender equality and justice Their concerns are shaped by conditions in their own countries and regions and also by conditions for women in other parts of the world Links forged by globalization international relations United Nations gender equality and development programs and women's nongovernmental organizations connect their futures This groundbreaking reference set documents the achievements and current challenges for all women providing distortion free and newly available information about women's status in matters from education to violence in more than 130 countries in the world's most populated areas Written by an international host of contributing specialists this set is accessible to high school students and above Its consistent narrative coverage and relevant statistics are ideal for research and comparisons Readers will find that conceptions of women's issues vary by country as the set illuminates diverse perspectives and contemporary practices that shape the variations in equality and well being among women Judicious inclusion of historical processes helps frame the issues in a holistic perspective Volume maps individual country maps tables photos and indexes by set and volume are also included Women and Migration Jacqueline Knörr,Barbara Meier,2000 All contributions to this book to this volume describe women as social actors within specific migration processes and point out women's creativity in shaping migrant settings. This perspective counter balances common descriptions of women as more or less invisible and dependent of male migration. At the same time the anthropological approach ensures the careful consideration and analysis of the culturally specific contexts within which the different processes of migration are taking place. Regional and cultural diversity of the data presented renders possible intercultural comparison of the investigated phenomena. The Middle East and North Africa 2003 Eur, The First Ladies Margaret Brown Klapthor, 1995 Brief biographies and portraits of wives, sisters, daughters, nieces and other relatives of Presidents who have served as White House hostesses from Martha Washington to Hillary Clinton. Feminist Periodicals, 1998 American Foreign Service Journal, 1998 Index Islamicus, 1997 Encyclopedia of Women & Islamic Cultures: Methodologies, paradigms and sources Suad Joseph, Afsaneh Najmabadi, 2003 Focuses on women and the civilizations and societies in which Islam has played a historic role.
