Two Eagles Ricardo Sheffield, 2023-04-19 In the middle of the Sonoran Desert two eagles meet face to face One has flown from the north the other from the south After a long journey they confront each other in a vast territory that unites two great countries that like the eagles are not as different as they seem Two hundred years after the beginning of diplomatic relations between Mexico and the United States Ricardo Sheffield takes a look at the shared history of both nations He considers questions such as What was life like for the Native Americans When did some decide to follow an unknown path south leaving others to stay behind What unites the lives of Mexicans with those living in the United States of America What have been the moments of greatest tension between the two countries With a distinctive voice full of irony humor and popular sayings the author traces the history of these two great powers from their common beginnings with the Clovis culture hunting mammoths to the civil wars of both countries the promulgation of their respective constitutions and their struggles to abolish slavery Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2010-03-31 Mediating Plureality Morten

Bay,2025-03-24 In this book Morten Bay provocatively questions whether or not truth in media is lost and furthermore whether humans can perceive objective reality or as many neuroscientists and philosophers now believe we all perceive different realities constructed through predictive processing As affective polarization continues to render American democracy increasingly dysfunctional a situation largely inflamed by media Bay calls for a cultural shift in which these two conditions are reconciled Drawing on political philosophy this book presents an ethics that holds up responsible media conduct as a democratic duty of all media users This shift in ethical frameworks carries with it different implications for a variety of audiences including individuals media platforms and corporations media practitioners and journalists media studies scholars and society more broadly Each stakeholder involved will need to reconsider their approach to media and reality individuals must accept that everyone s perceptions of reality are different platforms and corporations must cease irresponsible practices that dissociate realities and stoke division practitioners and journalists must develop more nuanced epistemologies beyond The Truth and scholars must redefine media by foregrounding epistemology pluralism and physicality in media theory Collectively Bay argues we must come to a new understanding of reality as a plurality of realities a plureality
