

The United States of America

The USA is in the continent of North America. The country stretches from the Atlantic Ocean in the east to the Pacific Ocean in the west, from Canada in the north to Mexico in the south. USA stands for United States of America. It is a federation of 50 states, 48 in the mainland, plus Alaska in the north west and Hawaii in the Pacific Ocean. Hawaii is a group of islands.

The American flag, the American flag is called "the Stars and Stripes"; it dates back to 1776. It has 13 stripes (which represent the original 13 states) and 50 stars (which represent the number of the states of the present federation). The colours of the flag are blue for justice, red for courage and white for innocence.

The bald eagle; the bald eagle is the national bird of the USA. At one time, these large, powerful birds lived almost everywhere in North America. At the beginning of the twentieth century the bald eagle population started to decrease because hunters killed a lot of eagles every year. Since 1960 the Americans have started to work together to save the bald eagle and now more than 50,000 eagles exist in the USA.

American Cities

Washington is the capital of the USA. It is named Washington after the first president, George Washington. It is located in the district of Columbia (D.C.). Washington is the political centre of the country. The president of the USA lives in the White House. The symbol of Washington is the Washington monument, an obelisk which was built in honour of George Washington. By law, no other building in this district can be taller.
