Antiques ,2003    Decanter ,2002    Agent Jack Robert Hutton,2019-11-12 The true story of Eric Roberts who infiltrated a network of Nazi sympathizers in Great Britain in order to protect the country from the grips of fascism June 1940 Europe has fallen to Adolf Hitler s army and Britain is his next target Winston Churchill exhorts the country to resist the Nazis and the nation seems to rally behind him But in secret some British citizens are plotting to hasten an invasion Agent Jack tells the incredible true story of Eric Roberts a seemingly inconsequential bank clerk who in the guise of Jack King helped uncover and neutralize the invisible threat of fascism on British shores Gifted with an extraordinary ability to make people trust him Eric Roberts penetrated the Communist Party and the British Union of Fascists before playing his greatest role for MI5 Hitler s man in London Pretending to be an agent of the Gestapo Roberts single handedly built a network of hundreds of British Nazi sympathizers factory workers office clerks shopkeepers who shared their secrets with him It was work so secret and so sensitive that it was kept out of the reports MI5 sent to Winston Churchill In a gripping real world thriller Robert Hutton tells the fascinating story of an operation concealed in MI5's World War II files Drawing on these newly declassified documents and private family archives Agent Jack shatters the comforting notion that Britain could never have succumbed to fascism and consequently that the world could never have fallen to Hitler This is the story of one man who loved his country so much that he risked everything to stand against a rising tide of hate An appealing mix of accessibility and research Hutton has illuminated a fascinating and often appalling side of the war at home Wall Street Journal

Enamels of the World, 1700-2000 Haydn Williams, 2009 Enamels of the World 1700 2000 consisting of some twelve hundred works is the largest and most comprehensive private collection known It provides an unparalleled opportunity to appreciate the richness and diversity of the art of enamelling during the past three centuries ranging from the imposing work of Qing dynasty China and Meiji Japan to the magnificent creations of Romanov Russia and the royal courts of Europe and the East Formed with the innovative criterion of considering the subject in a globally it covers work from all major centres of production allowing the enamelwork of a specific country to be viewed within its own context and as part of a wider history This volume presents over three hundred pieces from the collection The survey starts with an account of the evolution and refinement of the different enamelling techniques Thereafter it studies the subject thematically considering the impact of patronage and travel as well as the role of nationalism in the development of historical revivalism The enamelwork of China Japan the Islamic Lands and Europe are examined both in terms of local development and the assimilation of foreign influence The history of three firms is reviewed in greater focus Jean George Rmond Faberg and Cartier Representing different periods within three hundred years covered by the collection the character of these firms though largely shaped by the genius of their directors was also formed by the era in which they flourished Whether looking at the subject in general or in detail the reader is presented with an illuminating display of the great technical skill and creative ingenuity of the enamellers of the world The volume is accompanied by a CD that presents the Khalili Collection of Enamels of the World 1700 2000 in its entirety

Object Design in the Age of Enlightenment Ulrich Leben, 2004 The Free Drawing School Ecole royale gratuite de dessin fulfilled the Enlightenment ideal of an education open to all rich and poor male and female and of an education founded not on apprenticeship and the teachings of one master but on ideas of every sort and the practical application of universal principles Established in 1766 by royal decree the school survived the political turmoil of the Revolution and of the decades that followed The surviving documents engravings drawings and objects that can be traced to the school as well as the impressive number of artisans who trained there such as craftsman Claude Odiot sculptor Sebastien Cave architect Charles Percier and painter Girodet and the important figures in eighteenth century cultural life including Voltaire Lavoisier the duc de Choiseul and Madame du Barry who were involved with the school attest to its enormous
