Waiting For Gautreaux A Story Of Segregation Housing And The Black Ghetto:

Waiting for Gautreaux Alexander Polikoff, 2007-05-11 Winner 2006 The American Lawyer Lifetime Achievement Award On his thirty ninth birthday in 1966 Alexander Polikoff a volunteer ACLU attorney and partner in a Chicago law firm met some friends to discuss a pro bono case Over lunch the four talked about the Chicago Housing Authority construction program All the new public housing it seemed was going into black neighborhoods If discrimination was prohibited in public schools wasn't it also prohibited in public housing And so began Gautreaux v CHA and HUD a case that from its rocky beginnings would roll on year after year decade after decade carrying Polikoff and his colleagues to the nation's Supreme Court to face then solicitor general Robert Bork establishing precedents for suits against the discriminatory policies of local housing authorities often abetted by HUD and setting the stage for a nationwide experiment aimed at ending the concentration and racialization of poverty through public housing Sometimes Kafkaesque sometimes simply inspiring and never less than absorbing the story of Gautreaux told by its principal lawyer moves with ease through local and national civil rights history legal details political matters and the personal costs and rewards of a commitment to fairness equality and justice Both the memoir of a dedicated lawyer and the narrative of a tenacious pursuit of equality this story itself a critical still unfolding chapter in recent American history urges us to take an essential step in ending the racial inequality that Alexis de Toqueville prophetically named America's most formidable evil

The Chicago Freedom Movement Mary Lou Finley, Bernard LaFayette Jr., James R. Ralph Jr., Pam Smith, 2016-04-22 Six months after the Selma to Montgomery marches and just weeks after the passage of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 a group from Martin Luther King Jr's staff arrived in Chicago eager to apply his nonviolent approach to social change in a northern city Once there King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference SCLC joined the locally based Coordinating Council of Community Organizations CCCO to form the Chicago Freedom Movement The open housing demonstrations they organized eventually resulted in a controversial agreement with Mayor Richard J Daley and other city leaders the fallout of which has historically led some to conclude that the movement was largely ineffective In this important volume an eminent team of scholars and activists offer an alternative assessment of the Chicago Freedom Movement's impact on race relations and social justice both in the city and across the nation Building upon recent works the contributors reexamine the movement and illuminate its lasting contributions in order to challenge conventional perceptions that have underestimated its impressive legacy

The One-Way Street of Integration Edward G. Goetz, 2018-03-15 The One Way Street of Integration examines two contrasting housing policy approaches to achieving racial justice Integration initiatives and community development efforts have been for decades contrasting means of achieving racial equity through housing policy Goetz traces the tensions involved in housing integration and policy to show why he doesn't see the solution to racial injustice as the government moving poor and nonwhite people out of their communities The One Way Street of Integration critiques fair housing integration policies for targeting settlement patterns while ignoring underlying racism and issues of economic and political power Goetz challenges liberal orthodoxy determining that the standard efforts toward integration are unlikely to lead to racial equity or racial justice in American cities In fact in this pursuit it is the community development movement rather than that has the greatest potential for connecting to social change and social justice efforts No Simple Solutions Susan J. Popkin, 2016-10-07 In this book Sue Popkin tells the story of how an ambitious and risky social experiment affected the lives of the people it was ultimately intended to benefit the residents who had suffered through the worst days of crime decay and rampant mismanagement of the Chicago Housing Authority CHA and now had to face losing the only home many of them had known The stories Popkin tells in this book offer important lessons not only for Chicago but for the many other American cities still grappling with the legacy of racial segregation and failed federal housing policies making this book a vital resource for city planners and managers urban development professionals and anti poverty activists Affordable Housing and Public-Private Partnerships Nestor M.

Davidson, 2016-03-16 With distressing statistics about rising cost burdens increasing foreclosure rates rising unemployment falling wages and widespread homelessness building affordable housing is one of our most pressing social policy problems Affordable Housing and Public Private Partnerships focuses attention on this critical need as leading experts on affordable housing law and policy come together to address key issues of concern and to suggest appropriate responses for future action Focusing in particular on how best to understand and implement the joint work of public and private actors in housing this book considers the real estate aspects of affordable housing law and policy access to housing housing finance and affordability land use housing regulation and housing issues in a post Katrina context Filling a critical gap in the scholarly literature available this book will be of particular interest to policy makers academics lawyers and students of housing land use real estate property community development and urban planning The Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies Anthony M. Orum, 2019-04-15 Provides comprehensive coverage of major topics in urban and regional studies Under the guidance of Editor in Chief Anthony Orum this definitive reference work covers central and emergent topics in the field through an examination of urban and regional conditions and variation across the world It also provides authoritative entries on the main conceptual tools used by anthropologists sociologists geographers and political scientists in the study of cities and regions Among such concepts are those of place and space geographical regions the nature of power and politics in cities urban culture and many others The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies captures the character of complex urban and regional dynamics across the globe including timely entries on Latin America Africa India and China At the same time it contains illuminating entries on some of the current concepts that seek to grasp the essence of the global world today such as those of Friedmann and Sassen on global cities It also includes discussions of recent economic writings on cities and regions such as those of Richard Florida Comprised of over 450 entries on the most important topics and from a range of theoretical perspectives Features authoritative entries on topics ranging from gender

A Brief History of the Subordination of African Americans in the U.S. Alexander Polikoff, Elizabeth Lassar, 2020-02-07 This brief history presents the essential story of the subordination of African Americans in the U S captured in a 1968 cartoon by Pulitzer prize winning cartoonist John Fischetti The drawing is of a black man handcuffed to a wall with cuffs labeled White Racism The caption reads Why don t they lift themselves up by their own bootstraps like we did Bootstraps shows just how little lift up there has been and how the handcuffs of white racism have been and continue to be the cause Unique in its combination of comprehensiveness and brevity Bootstraps is written in language for the general reader yet its extensive endnotes will make it useful to both scholars and students Its succinct overview of the subordination history includes an in depth treatment of residential segregation a legacy of slavery and a central problem of our time and a response to the view that today s racial inequality is due largely to African Americans own moral and cultural failures By addressing a serious omission in the way we have educated our children the book s narration of our white racism history may make a contribution to a much needed confrontation with our racist past

The Hastings Law Journal ,2012 The Politics of Prosperity and Crisis in an Industrial Suburb Christopher Niedt, 2007 Race and Wealth Disparities Beverly I. Moran, 2008 Race and Wealth Disparities is a multidisciplinary reader on the subject of race and wealth primarily yet not exclusively within the United States The authors represent a number of social science and humanities perspectives from anthropology economics education policy history literature and law to management political science social psychology and sociology The authors also represent an attempt to create a dialogue across institutions with four of the authors representing Fisk University a historically Black University Because of this unique approach of having authors from ten different disciplines address questions of race and wealth this study is able to provide substantive information about race and wealth disparities as well as giving the reader a greater and more textured understanding of multidisciplinary work In this regard the text models a multidisciplinary conversation in a way that is meant to help others enter into interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary work The essays came out of a series of workshops between professors from fourteen different disciplines and four different universities therefore the essays are meant to explain the disciplines these professors represent as well as to convey and analyze the subject at hand Privileged Places Gregory D. Squires, Charis Elizabeth Kubrin, 2006 In the United States today quality of life depends heavily on where one lives but high levels of racial segregation in residential communities make it frustratingly difficult to disentangle the effects of place from those of race Gregory Squires and Charis Kubrin tackle these issues head on exploring how inequities resulting from the intersection of race and place coupled with the effects of public policy permeate and shape structures of opportunity in the United States Library Journal ,2005 The Book Review Digest ,2006 Journal of the Society of Christian Ethics ,2007 Housing Policy Debate ,2011
