

The background of the slide is a lush, green forest scene. In the middle ground, a small, rustic log cabin with a chimney sits on a grassy bank. The cabin is surrounded by tall, slender trees with dense green foliage. In the foreground, a calm body of water reflects the surrounding greenery and the cabin. The water is still, creating a clear mirror image of the scene above. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

Pond Walden is considered to be Henry David Thoreau's Masterpiece and has been read and adored by many for generations. Sneak Peak excerpts from the book: I should not obtrude my affairs so much on the notice of my readers if very particular inquiries had not been made by my townsmen concerning my mode of life which some would call impertinent though they do not appear to me at all impertinent but considering the circumstances very natural and pertinent. Some have asked what I got to eat if I did not feel lonesome if I was not afraid and the like. Others have been curious to learn what portion of my income I devoted to charitable purposes and some who have large families how many poor children I maintained. I will therefore ask those of my readers who feel no particular interest in me to pardon me if I undertake to answer some of these questions in this book. In most books the I or first person is omitted in this it will be retained that in respect to egotism is the main difference. We commonly do not remember that it is after all always the first person that is speaking. I should not talk so much about myself if there were anybody else whom I knew as well. Unfortunately I am confined to this theme by the narrowness of my experience. Moreover I on my side require of every writer first or last a simple and sincere account of his own life and not merely what he has heard of other men's lives. Some such account as he would send to his kindred from a distant land for if he has lived sincerely it must have been in a distant land to me. Perhaps these pages are more particularly addressed to poor students. As for the rest of my readers they will accept such portions as apply to them. I trust that none will stretch the seams in putting on the coat for it may do good service to him whom it fits. Original 1854 Book 6 x 9 Inches Matte Cover White Paper. American poet and thinker Henry David Thoreau First published in 1854 This book is literary a record of a kind of social experiment for which the author spent over two years On his own Thoreau decided to isolate himself from society for some time focusing only on himself and his needs imbued with the ideas of the liberal philosopher and the Unitarian pastor Ralph Waldo Emerson He settled in Massachusetts in his own self built hut on the banks of the Walden Pond He got everything he needed to live on his own spending most of his time gardening fishing reading classic literature swimming and rowing However he did not avoid human intercourse often meeting and talking both with random travelers and with the owner of the pond Emerson himself With his experiment Thoreau sought to make it clear to the modern society with its cult of material things that it is possible to live well and happily outside of society satisfying all natural needs with your own work He contrasted the industrial revolution and the emerging consumer society with freedom from material wealth privacy self sufficiency and closeness to nature In fact the Thoreau s book in addition to its undoubtedly amazing literary qualities is also a kind of propaganda of anti capitalist and romantic utopian ideas of the XIX century By the way it is appropriate to note that the ideas of maximum separation from modern society in order to be left alone with yourself and with nature are also quite popular in the 21st century
