Walker Evans The Getty Museum Collection:

Walker Evans Judith Keller, 1995-11-02 Walker Evans is widely recognized as one of the greatest American photographers of the twentieth century and the J Paul Getty Museum owns one of the most comprehensive collections of his work including more of his vintage prints than any other museum in the world This lavishly illustrated volume brings together for the first time all of the Museum's Walker Evans holdings Included here are familiar images such as Evans's photographs of tenant farmers and their families made in the 1930s and later published in Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and images that are much less familiar such as the photographs Evans made in the 1940s of the winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers circus or his very late Polaroids made in the 1970s In addition many previously unpublished Evans photographs and variant croppings of classic images appear here for the first time Author Judith Keller has written a lively informative text that places these photographs in the larger context of Evans's life and career and the culture especially the popular culture of the time In so doing she has produced an indispensable volume for anyone interested in the history of photography or American culture in the twentieth century Also included is the most comprehensive bibliography on Walker Evans published to date Walker Evans

Walker Evans, Andrei Codrescu, 1998 From the 1920s to the time of his death in 1975 photographer Walker Evans was obsessed with the signage he found in modern America from billboards to gas station pumps to street graffiti to handmade announcements of a Saturday night dance This book features 50 of his photographs of signs from the Getty Museum's collection plus 50 additional illustrations

Walker Evans Walker Evans, Belinda Rathbone, Clark Worswick, 2000 Walker Evans America's preeminent documentary artist has profoundly changed the way Americans look at themselves and their country The authors document Evans's monumental career and present scores of his never before published pictures drawn from the largest private collection of his work in the world 160 duotones

Beyond the Architect's Eye Mary N. Woods, 2009 Focusing on images of New York the rural South and Miami from the 1890s to the 1940s Mary N Woods explores the ways photographers used the built environment to explore not only the gulfs but also the overlaps between modern and traditional culture in America during the early twentieth century

Perfect Documents Virginia-Lee Webb, Walker Evans, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2000 The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Feb 1 Sept 3 2000

Walker Evans, Cuba Walker Evans, Andrei Codrescu, 2001 As novelist and poet Andrei Codrescu points out in the essay that accompanies this selection of photographs from the Getty Museum's collection Evans's photographs are the work of an artist whose temperament was distinctly at odds with Beals's impassioned rhetoric Evans's photographs of Cuba were made by a young still maturing artist who as Codrescu argues was just beginning to combine his early formalist aesthetic with the social concerns that would figure prominently in his later work Jacket

The J. Paul Getty Museum Handbook of the Photographs Collection J. Paul Getty Museum, Weston J. Naef, 1995 Since the J Paul Getty Museum began collecting photographs in 1984 it has formed one of the greatest photography collections in the world Weston Naef

Curator of Photographs has selected more than two hundred of the most important images from the Museum's collection and written commentaries on each. Ranging in date from the 1830s to the 1960s these photographs provide a brief history of the art of photography and offer a wide ranging survey of the Getty's holdings. Julia Margaret Cameron, Alfred Stieglitz, Eugene Atget, André Kertész, Walker Evans, and Diane Arbus are among the more than one hundred artists whose works are reproduced in this beautiful volume. Also included is an index of the photographers whose work is represented in the Museum's collection.

Dictator's Dreamscape Joseph R. Hartman, 2019-04-23 Joseph Hartman focuses on the public works campaign of Cuban president and later dictator Gerardo Machado. Political histories often condemn Machado as a US puppet dictator overthrown in a labor revolt and popular revolution in 1933. Architectural histories tend to catalogue his regime's public works as derivatives of US and European models. Dictator's Dreamscape reassesses the regime's public works program as a highly nuanced visual project embedded in centuries old representations of Cuba alongside wider debates on the nature of art and architecture in general especially in regards to globalization and the spread of US style consumerism. The cultural production overseen by Machado gives a fresh and greatly broadened perspective on his regime's accomplishments, failures, and crimes. The book addresses the regime's architectural program as a visual and architectonic response to debates over Cuban national identity, US imperialism, and Machado's own cult of personality.

Photography and the Art of Chance Robin Kelsey, 2015-05-26 As anyone who has wielded a camera knows, photography has a unique relationship to chance. It also represents a struggle to reconcile aesthetic aspiration with a mechanical process. Robin Kelsey reveals how daring innovators expanded the aesthetic limits of photography in order to create art for a modern world.

Walker Evans, Simple Secrets Walker Evans, Ellen Fleurov, 1997 Published to accompany exhibition held at the High Museum of Art, Georgia. 24 3 14 6 1998 and travelling.

James Agee in Context Michael A. Lofaro, 2023-01-17 It's difficult to overestimate the impact of the many new works by James Agee uncovered and published in the last twenty years. These previously unknown primary works have in turn encouraged a parallel explosion of critical evaluation and reevaluation by scholars to which James Agee in Context is the latest contribution. This superb collection from well known James Agee scholars features myriad approaches and contexts for understanding the author's fiction, poetry, journalism, and screenwriting. The essays bring the reader from the streets of James Agee's New York to travel with the author from Alabama to Hollywood to Havana. Contributors explore overlapping and sometimes unique subjects, themes, and accomplishments or lack thereof in Agee's uncovered works and highlight the diversity of interest that Agee's complete body of work inspires. The insightful scholarship on influence examines connections between Agee and Wright, Morris, Helen, Levitt, John, Dos, Passos, Ernest, Hemingway, and Stephen, Crane. Such juxtapositions serve to illustrate how Agee drew on literary influences as a young man, how he used his work as a journalist to craft fiction as he was about to turn thirty, and his influence upon others. The volume concludes with three poems and a short story by Agee, all previously unknown. It seems astonishing that so much remains to be discovered about this protean author.

materials and his circle Yet the recovery and analysis of neglected texts and information mined from newspapers and magazines proves the extent to which Agee kept his mind and his work as he himself put it patiently concentrated upon the essential quietudes of the human soul    Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included    Walker Evans Walker Evans,Maria Morris Hambourg,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2000 Mia Fineman is Chester Dale Fellow in the Department of Photographs The Metropolitan Museum of Art    Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent,2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images documentary films and photographic texts It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes including pre revolutionary Cuba the dream of revolution and the metaphor of the city frozen in time The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand alone important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising documentary film and photography outside the island    Photographs Sotheby's (Firm),2004    Cannibalismes disciplinaires Musée du quai Branly,2010 Ce volume est issu du colloque Histoire de l art et anthropologie qui s est tenu du 21 au 23 juin 2007    See ,1996    Photographs Christie, Manson & Woods International Inc,1996    Photographs Christie, Manson & Woods,1997    The 1930s Jean Clair,Pierre Théberge,2008 On the heels of the Roaring Twenties the 1930s which spanned from the economic crisis of 1929 to the outbreak of the Second World War was a dark decade Beyond similar governmental mechanisms these regimes shared an ideology the will to create what they called the New Man This decade began with a more or less innocent dream of the theme of the original egg germination the harmonious growth of a fabric both biological and social but ended with the nightmarish discovery of the corpses in the concentration camps by the armies of liberation in 1945 BOOK JACKET
