Walls Of Freedom Street Art Of The Egyptian Revolution:

Walls of Freedom Basma Hamdy, 2013 A powerful portrayal of the Egyptian Revolution telling the story with striking images of art that turned Egypt's walls into a visual testimony of bravery and resistance Even the army tanks that rolled onto Tahrir Square were immediately adorned with graffiti This survey of current Egyptian street art looks at the most influential artists who have made their iconic marks on the streets Spanning Cairo Alexandria and Luxor this is a document of the volatile and fast shifting political situation there Since the start of the Arab revolution the Middle East has seen an unparalleled explosion of graffiti With contributions by experts in the fields of typography graphic design sociology and Egyptology These images of the revolution taken by acclaimed photographers and activists places the graffiti of the revolution in a broader context and examines the historical socio political and cultural backgrounds which have shaped the movement

Street Art in the Middle East Sabrina de Turk, 2019-06-27 Since the 2011 Arab Spring street art has been a vehicle for political discourse in the Middle East and has generated much discussion in both the popular media and academia Yet this conversation has generalised street art and identified it as a singular form with identical styles and objectives throughout the region Street art's purpose is however defined by the socio cultural circumstances of its production Middle Eastern artists thus adopt distinctive methods in creating their individual work and responding to their individual environments Here in this new book Sabrina De Turk employs rigorous visual analysis to explore the diversity of Middle Eastern street art and uses case studies of countries as varied as Egypt Tunisia Lebanon Palestine Bahrain and Oman to illustrate how geographic specifics impact upon its function and aesthetic Her book will be of significant interest to scholars specialising in art from the Middle East and North Africa and those who bring an interdisciplinary perspective to Middle East studies

Revolution Graffiti Mia Gröndahl, 2012 The Egyptian Revolution that began on 25 January 2011 immediately gave rise to a wave of popular political and social expression in the form of graffiti and street art phenomena that were almost unknown in the country under the old regime Mia Gröndahl the photographer of Gaza Graffiti Messages of Love and Politics and Tahrir Square The Heart of the Egyptian Revolution has followed and documented the constantly and rapidly changing graffiti art of the new Egypt from its beginnings and here in more than 400 full color images celebrates the imagination the skill the humor and the political will of the young artists and activists who have claimed the walls of Cairo and other Egyptian cities as their canvas From the simplest hand written messages through stencils and martyr portraits to the elaborate murals of Mohamed Mahmoud Street the messages on the walls are presented in themed sections Revolution Freedom Egyptian Proud Cross Crescent Martyrs Heroes punctuated by interviews with some of the individual artists whose work has broken fresh ground
