WANDER RING SON

WANDER
RING SON

Shimura Takako's powerful, moving, and heartwarming memoir to explore gender identity among the lost of contemporary society.

With elegant, gentle prose and illustrations that capture the beauty of being different, Wandering Son follows the author with her sons, and their experiences with their son, from a diagnosis for autism to family members' attempts to make the main character fit in, including some real-life challenges. Will things ever work out as everyone's vision, from the moment he was a three-year-old? Just like a family can never truly know their son's future, Wandering Son

"A very sweet manga with endearing characters—endearing parents, an easy read, just including loving families and supportive friends. This manga is... worth every penny!"

—Ricardo Alvarado, MTV.com

"Wandering Son is particularly unique in its details, but universal in its emotion. They are not, merely, about autism; it is as difficult to identify with kids who feel like their bodies and their brains are equally ineligible to the world of beauty, preventing them from realizing the potential they see in themselves."

—Dani Murray, The A.V. Club
