Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography Madalina Akli, 2009 This book studies three autobiographies each of which is at least partially devoid of chronological structure Sartre's The Words Péc's W ou le Memory of Childhood and Sarraute's Childhood Calendar based order traditionally associated with autobiography fails to provide the coherence the readers expect Hence readers must create a sense of coherence at another level by using their conceptual resources Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography reveals that in these literary texts coherence is maintained based on the exploitation of conventional metaphors taken from everyday language which the autobiographers transform in a creative yet familiar manner These common metaphors offer guidance to readers and establish coherence between the shared life experiences of reader and autobiographer In the course of reading the autobiographers and the readers life experiences overlap through familiar metaphors which serve as organizational devices in writing and as guiding principles in reading

Palimpsestic Memory Max Silverman, 2013-02-01 The interconnections between histories and memories of the Holocaust colonialism and extreme violence in post war French and Francophone fiction and film provide the central focus of this book It proposes a new model of palimpsestic memory which the author defines as the condensation of different spatio temporal traces to describe these interconnections and defines the poetics and the politics of this composite form In doing so it is argued that a poetics dependent on tropes and techniques such as metaphor allegory and montage establishes connections across space and time which oblige us to perceive cultural memory not in terms of its singular attachment to a particular event or bound to specific ethno cultural or national communities but as a dynamic process of transfer between different moments of racialized violence and between different cultural communities The structure of the book allows for both the theoretical elaboration of this paradigm for cultural memory and individual case studies of novels and films

Dancing with Georges Péc Leslie Satin, 2024-06-14 This book explores the relationship of the life and work of the remarkable Parisian Jewish writer Georges Péc 1936-1983 to dance Dancing addresses art making parallels and their personal and sociocultural contexts including Péc's childhood loss of his parents in the Holocaust and its repercussions in the significance of the body everydayness space and attention permeating his work This book emerging from the author Leslie Satin's perspective as a dancer and scholar links Péc's concerns with those of dance and demonstrates that Péc's work has implications for dance and how we think about it Moreover it is framed as a performative autobiographical enactment of the author's relationship to Péc periodically linking their written danced and imagined lives This exploration will be of great interest to dancers dance scholars and dance students interested in contemporary experimental dance and contemporary dance
