The Poetry of Reality Marjan van Heteren, Rijksmuseum (Netherlands), Guido Jansen, Ronald de Leeuw, 2000 The artistic work produced in the Netherlands a hundred years ago is characterized by enormous variety Impressionism was still a strong influence but young artists were exploring numerous other avenues as well Some turned to new sources of inspiration such as Japanese art and symbolism while others were pushing stylization to its limits International schools were followed closely by the Dutch artists many of whom stayed for months at a time in Paris the South of France or London to study the new trends at close range These developments which roughly spanned the period 1885 1915 began with Van Gogh and ended with Mondrian This book explores the significance of this period of art on paper The selection gives an excellent impression of the range of work produced on paper in the period around 1900 back cover
