Uncommon Prayer Michael Plekon, 2016-09-15 In Uncommon Prayer Prayer in Everyday Experience Michael Plekon wants to change our minds on what constitutes prayer. In doing so he makes a theological claim that commonplace aspects of the Christian life are best understood as prayer whereby encouraging us to see that everyday life carries religious import. Prayer and the religious life are not restricted to special places and times but are open to all believers at all times. Plekon examines the works of diverse authors including many who have challenged the status quo of institutional churches. He asks us to listen to what poets writers activists and others tell us about how they pray at work and at home with colleagues family and friends in all the experiences of life from joy to suffering sadness to hope. Among them are Sarah Coakley Rowan Williams Heather Havrilesky Sara Miles Thomas Merton Mary Oliver Christian Wiman Mary Karr Barbara Brown Taylor Dorothy Day Maria Skobtsova Paul Evdokimov Seraphim of Sarov and Richard Rohr. Plekon argues that prayer encompasses a much wider variety of activity than formal and liturgical prayers and that by recognizing such aspects of prayer the believer is made more receptive to transformative aspects of prayerful attitudes. Reaching for God Roberta Werner, 2013 Reaching for God is a compendium of Benedictine life and prayer for oblates. It brings together in one volume the essence of Benedictine spirituality its history its relevance through the ages and in the present and a summary of the most fundamental gifts and values it offers for living a meaningful life. Here the meaning and purpose of the oblate way of life is explained in a clear and encouraging way. Werner offers guidance and examples of prayer to enrich any spiritual life. Sister Roberta Werner OSB having worked as a teacher caregiver and educational administrator is now the assistant oblate director at St Benedict's Monastery in St Joseph Minnesota. In this role she guides an oblate discussion group contributes to oblate newsletter publications has set up an oblate library and makes the spiritual journey with the many oblates who connect with her and with the monastery in their search for God. I fell in love with you and I cried Rachel Hill, 2022-04-02 I fell in love with you and I cried is a spiritual personal and travel memoir of a year in India and Southeast Asia. In April 2017 my husband and I asked ourselves what would we do if we could do anything. We decided to sell up leave our jobs and go travelling along the way unpicking the conditioning of property career and security and exploring what a life with less stuff would look like. We gave away most of our possessions and in March 2018 we went to India where we spent seven months in all then Thailand Tokyo Nepal Cambodia and Vietnam. My book documents the trip through the eyes of a relatively inexperienced traveller. The sights sounds and colours of India and Southeast Asia as well as the physical and emotional challenges of a year of travel. This was a pre Covid19 trip of a lifetime making connections with local people and fellow travellers and putting beliefs about minimalism into practice by living out of a small backpack for a year of slow travel. Bringing in Beauty Malcolm
