Walker Evans American Photographs Seventy Fifth Anniversary Edition:

Walker Evans: American Photographs Lincoln Kirstein, 2012 More than any other artist Walker Evans invented the images of an essential America that we have long accepted as fact American Photographs first published by The Museum of Modern Art in 1938 is the purest and most complete expression of his cool unblinking vision the eighty seven photographs reproduced on its pages are as relevant and essential as ever with Lincoln Kirstein's essay as their eloquent foil American Photographs has been a key touch stone for photographers and those who seek to understand the lyric potential of the medium but it has often been out of print This Seventy Fifth Anniversary Edition with sumptuous duotone plates complementing the elegant restraint of the original typography and design makes Evans's landmark book available again For the first time digital technologies aid in emulating the precise cropping and finely tuned balance of the 1938 reproductions capturing as never before the look and feel of the first edition cover jacket This Exquisite Loneliness Richard Deming, 2023-10-03 Rich and sensitive The Wall Street Journal Loneliness is everywhere these days But this book will chase some of it away and maybe replace it with connection Patton Oswalt Emmy and Grammy winning comic A examination of the life and work of six brilliant minds of the twentieth century intent on answering the question What can be done not despite but because of loneliness At an unprecedented rate loneliness is moving around the globe from self isolating technology and political division to community decay and social fragmentation and yet it is not a feeling to which we readily admit It is stigmatized freighted with shame and fear and easy to dismiss as mere emotional neediness But what if instead of shying away from loneliness we embraced it as something we can learn from and as something that will draw us closer to one another In This Exquisite Loneliness Richard Deming turns an eye toward that unwelcome feeling both in his own experiences and the lives of six groundbreaking figures to find the context of loneliness and to see what some people have done to navigate this profound sense of discomfort Within the back stories to Melanie Klein's contributions to psychoanalysis Zora Neale Hurston's literary and ethnographic writing the philosophical essays of Walter Benjamin Walker Evans's photography of urban alienation Egon Schiele's revolutionary artwork and Rod Serling's uncanny narratives in The Twilight Zone Deming explores how loneliness has served as fuel for an intense creative desire that has forged some of the most original and innovative art and writing of the twentieth century This singular meditation on loneliness reveals how we might transform the pain of emotional isolation and become more connected to others and more at home with our often unquiet selves Introduction to Photography with the Leica M11 Patrick Cousot, 2025-11-26 A short simple and illustrated introduction to the fundamental concepts of photography with a few optional technical explanations and their practical application with a Leica M11 Mississippi Witness James T. Campbell, Elaine Owens, 2019-02-01 In June 1964 Neshoba County Mississippi provided the setting for one of the most notorious crimes of the civil rights era the Klan orchestrated murder of three young voting rights workers James Chaney Michael Schwerner and Andrew Goodman Captured on the road between the towns of Philadelphia and Meridian the three were driven to a remote country crossroads shot and buried in an earthen dam from which their bodies were recovered after a forty four day search The crime transfixed the nation As federal investigators and an aroused national press corps descended on Neshoba County white Mississippians closed ranks dismissing the men s disappearance as a hoax perpetrated by civil rights activists to pave the way for a federal invasion of the state In this climate of furious conformity only a handful of white Mississippians spoke out Few did so more openly or courageously than Florence Mars A fourth generation Neshoban Mars braved social ostracism and threats of violence to denounce the murders and decry the climate of fear and intimidation that had overtaken her community She later recounted her experiences in Witness in Philadelphia one of the classic memoirs of the civil rights era Though few remember today Mars was also a photographer Shocked by the ferocity of white Mississippians reaction to the Supreme Court s 1954 ruling against racial segregation she bought a camera built a homemade darkroom and began to take pictures determined to document a racial order she knew was dying Mississippi Witness features over one hundred of these photographs most taken in the decade between 1954 and 1964 almost all published here for the first time While a few depict public events Mars photographed the 1955 trial of the murderers of Emmett Till most feature private moments illuminating the separate and unequal worlds of black and white Mississippians in the final days of Jim Crow Powerful and evocative the photographs in Mississippi Witness testify to the abiding dignity of human life even in conditions of cruelty and deprivation as well as to the singular vision of one of Mississippi s and the nation s most extraordinary photographers

American Modern: Hopper to O'Keeffe Esther Adler ,Kathy Curry,2013-08-11 The Museum of Modern Art is known for its prescient focus on the avant garde art of Europe but in the first half of the twentieth century it was also acquiring work by Stuart Davis Georgia O Keeffe Charles Sheeler Alfred Stieglitz and other less well known American artists whose work sometimes fits awkwardly under the avant garde umbrella American Modern presents a fresh look at MoMA s holdings of American art from that period The still lifes portraits and urban rural and industrial landscapes vary in style approach and medium melancholy images by Edward Hopper and Andrew Wyeth bump against the eccentric landscapes of Charles Burchfield and the Jazz Age sculpture of Elie Nadelman Yet a distinct sensibility emerges revealing a side of the Museum that may surprise a good part of its audience and throwing light on the cultural preoccupations of the rapidly changing American society of the day

Constructing Worlds Alona Pardo,Elias Redstone,2014 Architecture has long been a subject matter for photographers who utilize the medium not just to document the built world but also to reveal wider truths about society This book features chapters devoted to various artists among them Berenice Abbott Walker Evans Ed Ruscha Bernd and Hilla Becher Andreas Gursky and Iwan Baan and includes 220 color and duotone images Each chapter opens with a text introducing the artists work followed by reproductions of their photographs Arranged chronologically the book documents the birth of the skyscraper against the backdrop of the Great Depression the rise of the modernist tradition in America post colonial Africa and India the effects of industry on 1960s Europe the increasing suburbanization of America and Europe and the consequences of today's mass urbanization in Asia the Middle East and South America Far reaching and penetrating this volume reflects on the ongoing dialogue between photography and architecture 00Exhibition Barbican Art Gallery London UK 25 9 2014 11 1 2015
